Dear Friends,

Today we begin a new Church year. Today we begin the quiet, but joyful season of “Advent.” Advent should be a time of quiet reflection and preparation for the celebration of the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Unfortunately, the world around us is not quiet nor reflective. The world drags us into a whirlwind of activity. A push to buy things. An over saturation of holiday songs and celebration. A frantic rush to the holiday!

Why not make Advent a true season of waiting, reflection and anticipation?

- ◆ Spend some quiet moments each day and read the Nativity accounts in Matthew’s and Luke’s Gospel.
- ◆ Create your own family Advent Wreath. Each Sunday, at the main meal, light the next candle.
- ◆ Wait to decorate your home. “Less is More!” is a wonderful expression.
- ◆ Prominently display a Nativity set in your home.

Let us continue the cause of:

“Keeping Christ in Christmas!”

We continue to pray for one another!
