TODAY!!

SMA Fundraiser:
*Albino Protective School

Today is a fund raiser to assist in a project to help young Albino girls and boys in Mwanza, Tanzania.

Albino people, especially children and youth, are often victims of prejudice, violence, and marginalization in African society. In some cases, they have been imprisoned, deliberately disfigured, raped or murdered because of their genetic situation. This is due to superstition and shamanism (primitive religions).

Also, these individuals require special healthcare such as skin cancer screening, eye, and dental care. In March of 2019, The Society of African Missions (SMA) Polish Province, started a center to house, protect, and educate these young people. Presently, the facility has 14 Albino youths in residence, 7 males and 7 females. Their desire is expand the facility by 16 additional students each year.

It is our hope that you will help them with this endeavor. Information is available at the entrances of the church.

Any donation is appreciated!
