The disciples were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FEAST OF FAITH

The Collection: A Privilege

As the altar is prepared for the celebration of the Eucharist, the collection is usually taken up.

In the early church, this part of the Mass must have been something to behold, as the people suddenly began to move, bringing forward to the deacons and priests freshly-baked bread and fine wine, produce and living animals. Food items that would be distributed to the poor. (Hence, the celebrant needed to wash his hands prior to praying the Eucharistic Prayer. Priests still ritually do this washing.)

Then, after the Eucharistic Prayer, that same community came forward again in the Communion procession, and they received back the bread and wine they had given, now transformed into something infinitely more precious than bread and wine: the very Body and Blood of Christ.

Beginning around the eleventh century, it became the custom for people to present money instead of bread and wine and food gifts. And the procession of the faithful gradually disappeared. But the meaning is the same.

We continue to bring the fruit of our labors and to offer them freely to God. And God continues to transform them into Christ.

It is through our generous sharing of time, talent, and treasure that our parishes can preach the gospel, reach out to the sick and the imprisoned, and celebrate the sacraments.

5 GREAT REASONS to Patronize the Merchants in Our Church Bulletin!

1. They support the work of our church.
2. It keeps money in our community. For every $100 spent at a locally owned business, $68 goes back into the community and your tax base. For every $100 spent at a chain store, only $43 comes back. Online purchases bring nothing back to our local community.
3. Keeps our community unique. Where we shop, where we eat and have fun—all of it makes our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.
4. Creates more good jobs. Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community.
5. Get better service. Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.
