May 17, 2020: Sixth Sunday of Easter

Some “Great News!!”

The Archdiocese has allowed us to reopen our Churches for private prayer starting this Sunday!

There is, of course, the mandatory wearing of face masks and the use of “Social Distancing.”

We will have St. Anne’s Church open for prayer on the following schedule:

Sunday: 9 AM to 2 PM

Monday to Friday: 9AM to 2 PM.

Saturday: 9 AM to 5PM

This is Phase One.

There will be 2 more phases for Church celebrations.:

2. Daily Masses.

When Daily Mass starts, we will also be able to celebrate Funeral Masses & Baptisms.

3. Begin Sunday Masses. (This also will have special guidelines and, most likely, limits on attendees.)

The dates for these have not been announced. I will keep you posted!!

The Catholic Cemeteries in the Archdiocese of Newark will now be open for visiting on Sundays : 8 AM until 5 PM.

(As per the state’s mandate, you must wear masks and practice social distancing.)

Beginning on May 18, cemetery visitation will be permitted on week days from 3:00 PM until 6:00 PM.

(After all internments have been completed.)

The “Memorial Day Masses” at cemeteries have been postponed until further notice.

There is work being done on live streaming the Memorial Day Masses. (Further information will follow.)

“Love One Another!”

Practice “Social Distancing”!

Wear your face mask!

For May, the statue of Mary from the former lower church chapel will be in the Sanctuary.

This statue had been in the Rosary Walk area for 1 year. The Intention envelopes for Mothers' Day will be kept here.

Perhaps, we could use the Cardinal's suggested intentions as we pray the Rosary this week.

As I suggested, why not "Pray with Others" (virtually) this week!?!

Pray the Rosary at 10 AM, or 2 PM, or 6 PM.

I usually pray my Rosary at 2 PM.

Join Me!

Although the Parish Office is closed, if you need any Mass cards, Memorial Candles or documents, please call and leave a message. I will get back to you. Let us continue to pray for each other!

Msgr. Ron

May is the Month of Blessed Mother!

And do we need her now!

The other evening a mother brought here child in a stroller to the Shrine and explained Blessed Mother to him. Then she said a "Hail Mary".

Good job Mom! Passing on the Faith!

Unfortunately, this year, we were unable to have a formal crowning of Blessed Mother.

Why not "crown her" in your hearts by praying the Rosary daily in May?

We have placed a table with vases on it to received floral offerings. Feel free to bring some flowers or plants for Blessed Mother.

The table and vases will be available throughout the month of May.

We have been following Cardinal Tobin's pastoral letter about the need of Mary in our lives at this time.

He has given 5 reasons and a Prayer Intention f.

Here is the continuation of the Cardinal's Letter:

4. People are longing for the sacraments, especially the Eucharist.

Mary shows us the way to her Son. She is a sacrament of God's presence in the world, the Gateway to Grace and a model for the Church's prayer and worship. Deprived of access to the sacraments, and to liturgy cum populo (with our sisters and brothers), we understandably turn to Mary in the Rosary and other devotional prayers to help fill the spiritual gaps that exist in our lives.

Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us. Teach us to seek and find your Son, Jesus, in the prayer and worship of the Church, in the sacraments and in intercessory prayers to you and all the saints. Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, help us to be patient and understanding until the day we can safely reopen our churches and once again make the sacraments available to all.

5. People need wise, prudent and compassionate leadership—now more than ever.

Mary is the Mother of the Good Shepherd. His teaching and example powerfully illustrate the meaning and vital importance of servant leadership. We implore the Mother of our Lord to help all our leaders in society and in the Church set aside their personal and political agendas so that they can place the needs of others first and foremost.

Mother of Justice and of Mercy, pray for all who are leaders. Inspire us by your obedience to God's will and your readiness to sacrifice your own needs and desires for the good of all. Open our minds and hearts to the selfless witness given to us by your Son so that we can lead our people with humility, wisdom and courage.
