Statement from the Archdiocese of Newark concerning the reopening of Churches

A general dispensation from the Sunday obligation will remain until further notice.

The dispensation for the obligation to attend Mass will remain in effect. No one will be required to attend Mass when public celebrations resume. Hence, live stream Masses for parishioners at home will continue.

Attendance will be limited. We know restrictions will remain on holding large gatherings, so we are working with parishes to determine the best way to ensure safety. Communications will come from the parish so parishioners will know how many people can attend any given Mass.

It is likely that all parishioners may not be able to attend Mass regularly at first.

Social Distancing will be practiced. Expect that your parish will have pews/rows that are taped off, and that households, even of one individual, will be asked to keep six feet of separation from each other.

No one will be admitted without a mask. Parishioners should take their temperature before coming to Mass.

Anyone with any symptoms of sickness must stay home.

Liturgical changes will be in place. Similar to protocols established when churches were closing, extra precautions will be taken. Temporary adjustments will be made to how we celebrate Mass and receive Communion.

There still will be a risk for anyone who attends a public Mass. Even with best health practices and strict social distancing, anyone who enters a public space should recognize there is a risk of contracting the coronavirus. Improved cleaning will occur at our churches, but no one should expect that they will be any safer from germs than in other public spaces.

Solemnity of All Saints

Beloved,
we are God's children now;
what we shall be
has not yet been revealed.

1 John 3:2

November 1, 2020

November is the Month of Remembrance

We remember our deceased relatives and friends.

Also we remember that

"We are dust and unto dust we shall return."

Planning for our future is important.

Do I have a Will?

A Will is an act of love by which we can distribute our earthly goods to loved ones and to charities we have supported in life.

(Please remember St. Anne's!)

Do I have "Instructions on my death?"

Different from a Will, these instructions specify where I would like my funeral Mass to be offered. Perhaps special music or charitable giving in lieu of flowers, etc.

Some people make pre-arrangements with a Funeral Director so that their family is freed of that burden.

Please remember to pray for all the deceased this coming month.

Especially the Souls in Purgatory.

In particular, those who have no one to pray for them.

Perhaps someday we will benefit from the prayers of others!

All Souls Envelopes are available at the information table in the church vestibule.

SAINTS AND SINNERS

The only difference between the saint and the sinner is that every saint has a past, and every sinner has a future.

—Oscar Wilde
