Jesus said to his disciples,
“And then they will see

coming in the clouds’
with great power and glory.”

MARK 13:26

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOD’S REIGN

By pointing to the end times, today’s readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new.

In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God’s reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News.

Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God’s reign present and to come.

Words to Reflect Upon

Just as Jesus blessed his disciples as he ascended to heaven, so we are blessed as we leave Sunday Mass. This blessing is a prayer for God’s continuing protection.

As we leave the church, we bear the invisible sign of the Master whom we follow.

In the words of an ancient letter to Diognetus, “Christians are indistinguishable from other people either by nationality, language, or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow an outlandish way of life. . . . And yet, there is something extraordinary about their lives”

We are ordinary people sent forth to live extraordinary lives, lives like Christ’s own life—pouring ourselves out for others in prayer, service, and love.

The Catholic Church dedicates the entire month of November to praying in a special way for the Holy Souls in Purgatory.
 The Holy Souls (also called the Faithful Departed) are members of the Church who await the purification of their souls before joining the saints in heaven for all eternity. Specifically, they are referred to as the Church Suffering.
 (The saints in heaven are the Church Triumphant, and the faithful on earth are the Church Militant).
