*Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe.*

The 34th Sunday brings the liturgical year of the Church to its culmination. At the close of the year, the Church draws our attention to the Kingship of Jesus and the coming of his Kingdom through this Sunday's readings.

From the cross, Christ invites us to share in his reign. We participate in his Kingship by sacrificing ourselves in love by caring for the weak and the sick, by helping those in need, by sharing our time and our very selves with those around us.

After all, when Jesus comes in his glory on the final day, He will focus only on one thing. He will ask only one question: How did we care for the poor, the sick, the suffering? Nothing else will matter. Just how we treated who Jesus called "the least" among us.

When his glory appears suddenly and surprisingly, shall we be able to say: "Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord." (Ps 122)

On Thanksgiving Day, let us give thanks to God for our King is the true God. Leaders of nations in this world are passing and temporal. Only Jesus Christ, the Son of God is ruler over all people both now and forever. His reign is eternal.

Let us pray also for the least fortunate among us today especially the victims of the evil and atrocities of war in Ukraine. May the King of Kings and King of Peace bring peace to the world and end to the destructive inhuman war in Ukraine. Amen.

Fr. Robert
