What should humility look like?

Looking outdoor in this season of fall, I observed some mums growing around and being decorated at churches and houses. It am reminded of the saying, “A flower does not think about competing with the flower nest to it. It just blooms.”

I think this is what humility should look like.

Humility is the foundation of all virtues. It came from the Latin word “Humus” which means soil or dirt. Without a foundation a building is never strong enough to withstand a strong wind.

Jesus is the very first model of humility. As St. Paul teaches us, “Jesus though was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.” (Philippians 2:6-8)

Today’s 30th Sunday, Jesus is inviting us to be humble always because God loves the humble and the lowly. “Just work hard in silence, and let your success be your noise.”

By the way, thank you for those who donated MUMS flowers. We still accept.them.

Fr. Robert
