November is to Remember....

November is the month to remember the holy souls in purgatory, and to celebrate the great triumph of these souls we call Saints who are now crowned with God's glory in heaven for eternity.

During the whole month of November, we pray in a very special way for our dearly departed, the founders of this Church of Saint Anne, all the souls in purgatory, especially the forgotten ones.

Heaven is our home, and we are all destined to be saints by virtue of our baptism. The souls, like the imperfect person Zacchaeus who longs to see Jesus, are also looking to see Jesus. No obstacle could hinder us from seeing Jesus because He himself longs to see us. Jesus wants to embrace us at the Holy Eucharist during holy communion and in the life to come.

With our prayers, may our dearly departed and all the souls in purgatory find peace in the loving Presence of our Heavenly Father our Creator.
Amen.

Fr. Robert
