Some Words from

Fr. Robert

September is “Catechetical Sunday”

Let us offer special prayers to all our Catechists, Family Based Religious Education Program, CCD children, youth and parents of the Church of St. Anne.

As the Gospel reminds us, each and everyone of us is important. We were all created by God intentionally and with a purpose. Why did God create you and me? There is purpose and meaning to be discovered, lived, and shared. At any age, we may experience life in a beautiful way when we live the life of Jesus every day.

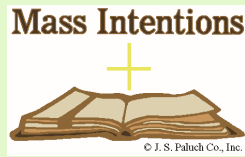

Come and learn more about our faith and the beauty of knowing, loving and serving God in a catechetical way.

This year, we are happy to introduce to the Church of St. Anne a more dynamic, a more experiential and practical Religious Education Program of learning and living God’s ways.

We are hoping and praying for a bountiful and productive harvest this year.

September 11, 2001— 21 years — Let us take a moment to reflect on that horrible day and remember all those that lost their lives and the families that have carried on without them.
