Luke 16:13

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

Some Words from

Fr. Robert

Am I a smart and prudent steward?

Planning our future is a good stewardship. But we don't just plan for 10 years, 50 years or a hundred years. We are planning for eternity years with God, our eternal future.

What do we do with God's blessings in our life? Am I a good steward to the resources that God is giving me? On the 25th Sunday of the week, Jesus' message to us is to be smart, to be wise and to be prudent disciples of him. Jesus wants us to use wisely even the material blessings we receive from God so as to propel us to holiness and to enter heaven.

There are more or less 6,000 registered Insurance companies in the United States alone, but none of them guarantees eternal life. If I were wise, smart and prudent, I would invest with preference on my soul's eternal salvation.

The beauty of church is we remember, we pray, and we offer masses for the souls. Perpetual Memorial Intercession is practiced at St. Anne's. This guarantees that you and your family are remembered at the celebration of Mary's first Saturday mass in perpetual as long as the church stands. Please remember the Church of St. Anne, as she keeps all of us in her perpetual gratitude. Enroll now, by calling the Rectory.
