Some Words from

Fr. Robert

Celebrating Labor Day as we Labor for Salvation.

As United States of America pays tribute to the contributions and achievements of American workers, let us reflect also on the greatest achievement of Jesus for our Salvation.

Jesus himself labored in carrying his cross and died on it because the prize of it is our redemption. As Jesus labored for our salvation, let us labor also through our cooperation. In other words, Jesus invites us to follow Him in carrying our own cross to Calvary so as reach the victory of the Resurrection.

I pray that may we always be strengthened by the Eucharist as we labor in the vineyard, helping to bring Christ's saving message to a hungry world of God's love.

Whatever we do may be blessed, and find favor from Him. Amen.
