“Are we there yet?”

I once saw a video of a family inside a car who were going on a long trip. The three children were all excited, eyes lit up and they kept on saying “Are we there yet?” every few minutes. The parents on the other hand, looked tired and trying their best not to yell at the kids because they were already annoyed with the constant questions. Of course, I found this scene really funny.

As I reflect on this Sunday's readings, the images from this video kept on coming. Today, the third Sunday of Advent is Gaudete Sunday. “Gaudete” in Latin translates to “rejoice”. This celebration is a reminder that God who loves us is still in charge and that we await his coming not with fear, but with tremendous joy. That is also the reason why the candle on the Advent wreath is pink and the priests wear a pink chasuble.

For many of us, just like the parents in the video, waiting is not something we enjoy. We would rather pay extra in shipping than wait in line at the stores. We would rather avoid doctor's appointments because of the long wait.

This week, I encourage each one of us to be more like the children. Eagerly waiting and rejoicing for the coming of our Lord. Here at St. Anne's we have many events lined up so we can joyfully prepare for the birthday of Jesus.

We just had the Feast of our Lady of Guadalupe last Dec. 12. It was a beautiful celebration of faith and community. For those who attended or missed it, I hope you will take some time to attend the Filipino tradition of Simbang Gabi on Dec. 20, Christmas Vigil on Dec. 24, Las Posadas on Dec. 28. The 5 Loaves Pantry will also give out the Christmas food bags to our adopted families on Dec. 21.

Together, let's make an extra effort to experience the joy of this Advent season.
