Pastor's Notes

St. Bernard of Clairvaux once said "The three most important virtues are: humility, humility and humility." This season of Advent, we are reminded that indeed God loves a humble heart.

Jesus was the perfect example. Though a God and King, He came to us not just in a form of a baby but was even born in a manger. All His life, He lived simply - no fancy home, clothes or servants.

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist called us to humble ourselves in preparation for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He showed humility by letting people know that he is not even worthy to carry the Lord's sandals.

How do we show our humility to God this season?

By examining our conscience, reflecting on how we lived this year and yes, repenting for the sins we have committed against God and our neighbors.

This is where the gift of the Sacrament of Reconciliation comes in. While some of us has made confession an important part of our spiritual journey, I know many have not received this sacrament for months, even years. That is why I am encouraging each and everyone to include this beautiful practice in your Christmas To Do list.

On December 13th, Saturday, I invited a few Priests to come to our Advent Reconciliation Day and hear confessions from 2:00 pm to 3:30 pm. I pray that you would take advantage of this opportunity to receive this wonderful gift. I also pray that you will bring your children and encourage them to receive the Sacrament of Penance as well.

If you cannot make it that day, please reach out to me or any priest. We're more than happy to accommodate you.

Fr. Robert
