Pastor's Notes

As I rested on a corner during last Sunday's Centennial celebration of the Feast of St. Anne, I can't help but feel emotional seeing all the activities happening simultaneously at the parking lot - strangers starting to have a conversation, someone pulling up a chair so another can sit down and eat, a volunteer helping a guest with directions... Yes, there was a big crowd and the weather was quite hot but there were smiles on the faces of the organizers, volunteers, vendors, musicians and guests. There's so much love and kindness in the air.

Having a big event such as this requires not only months of planning but most of all cooperation from everyone present to make it a success.

Just like the little boy who shared his five loaves and two fishes in today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that all acts of kindness no matter how small is significant in fulfilling the work of God. One person's action can be an instrument of a miracle.

From the bottom of my heart, I would like to thank the Centennial Committee for being so generous with their time and talents in making this event possible for other parishioners and guests to enjoy. Thank you to all the sponsors for sharing their treasure. Lastly, thank you to everyone who in their own little way made the event a joyful and memorable one. St. Anne, our Nonna is truly proud.
