

Beyond Certification. Guaranteed Traceability.

The Cost of Unverified Claims

Reputation Risk

Greenwashing allegations can severely damage brand equity built over years

Consumer Skepticism

72% of consumers doubt sustainability claims without transparent proof

Competitive Disadvantage

Brands with verified credentials win customer loyalty and market share

Our Solution: The REYBOTEX Verification Promise

We don't just use certified factories. We verify every step.

REYBOTEX is our branded r-PET yarn—a premium recycled material that represents the future of sustainable textiles.

Beyond its inherent quality and performance characteristics, we've engineered a unique internal verification system that tracks the material from its origin through every stage of production to the final product.

This comprehensive approach gives you the documented proof that your products contain exactly what we claim—not estimates, not approximations, but verified facts.

The result? Unshakeable confidence in your sustainability story.

The Verification Journey

From Filament to End Product: A Fully Documented Chain

Our verification system isn't a single checkpoint - it's a comprehensive documented process that ensures integrity at every critical juncture in the supply chain.

Your Key Benefits: Tangible Proof & Trust

Turn our verification into your credibility

Trust & Credibility

You get a concrete story backed by a verifiable system, not just a claim. Build authentic relationships with customers who value transparency.

Transparency Guaranteed

Our multi-stage audit provides an undeniable paper trail. Every step is documented, every claim is backed by evidence.

Risk Reduction

Minimize your exposure to greenwashing claims with documented evidence. Protect your brand reputation with verifiable proof.

Consumer Confidence

Empower your sales and marketing teams with a trusted label that resonates with environmentally conscious consumers.

The Power of Documentation

A Paper Trail That Tells Your Story

Every REYBOTEX verification creates a comprehensive archive of documentation that proves your sustainability commitment.

- Factory certifications and audit reports
- Material receipts and delivery confirmations
- Production approvals and quality checks
- Shipment manifests and export documentation

This isn't just compliance—it's competitive advantage.

The Consumer-Facing Symbol

The REYBOTEX Hangtag

A Simple Label with a Powerful Backstory

This hangtag is the final piece of the puzzle—the consumer-facing symbol of our entire verification process.

Each tag features a unique Licence Number that connects the final product back to the fully verified and audited supply chain.

It's not just a tag; it's a Promise of Integrity.

This number is the key that unlocks transparency, allowing customers to trust that your sustainability claims are backed by rigorous verification—not just good intentions.
