

Press Release - For Immediate Release

International Dignitaries Plan Press Conference in Atlanta To Call For Peace in Haiti

Atlanta, Georgia - April 2024 - Amidst the ongoing crisis in Haiti, a coalition of esteemed international dignitaries is set to convene in Atlanta, Georgia, for a crucial press conference to advocate for peace and stability and to bring awareness to issues troubling the nation.

The event is scheduled for April 15, from 11:30 AM until 12:30 PM at The APEX Museum at 135 Auburn Ave, Atlanta, GA. This pivotal event will bring together prominent figures from various corners of the globe to address the urgent need for humanitarian assistance in Haiti and to condemn interference from external international forces. With recent political turmoil and social unrest gripping the country, the global Diaspora and the Haitian community are working together to execute concerted efforts to restore peace and promote dialogue among all stakeholders.

Led by distinguished leaders and nonprofit organizations such as Dr. Lubin Moise, founder of the Interfaith Peace and Reconciliation Division of Mount Sinai Worship Center Inc., The Kingdom Warriors Foundation, OPTI Policy Institute, The Federation of International Gender and Human Rights (FIGHR), and The Center for Truth and Healing (CFTH), the press conference will serve as a platform to amplify the voices calling for an end to violence and division in Haiti. Through united action and solidarity, the participating dignitaries aim to send a clear message of support to the Haitian people and to underscore the international commitment to their well-being and prosperity on behalf of the global Diaspora.

"We cannot stand idly by while our brothers and sisters in Haiti suffer," remarked Dr. Truth Bey, a key organizer of the event. "It is imperative that we come together as a global community to advocate for peace, stability, and justice in Haiti, the first Black republic." The press conference in Atlanta represents a crucial step in our collective efforts to address the pressing challenges facing the nation."

The press conference will also provide an opportunity for attendees to hear firsthand accounts from individuals with direct knowledge of the situation in Haiti, including humanitarian workers, activists, and representatives from Haitian communities.

As the world watches, Atlanta, Georgia, stands as a beacon of hope and solidarity, hosting this significant gathering of international dignitaries dedicated to pursuing peace in Haiti. To donate or contribute go to www.nypeacemarch.com.

For media inquiries and interview requests, please contact:

Shermaine Lopez

caratominimedia@gmail.com

+1 (917) 717-8896