

Carry Me (song of the unborn child)

Written by Steve De Leon

Without your love, I am no more
You hold the key, to the door
That unlocks the dawning
Of a thousand new days
Words to be spoken, steps to be taken
The wonder of love,
And the testing of pain

Chorus

Carry me, carry me
I am yours, you are mine, carry me
To the life that was given
To the light of the sun
'Till we can walk together, carry me

My mouth moves, but I cannot speak
My hands reach out, but I am weak
Every beat of my heart,
Cries out for the next
Without your love, it beats no more
Without your love, I am no more...
Mommy please...

Repeat Chorus → Bridge

'Till we can walk, 'till we can walk
'Till we can walk, 'till we can walk together

'Till we can walk, 'till we can walk
'Till we can walk, we're going to walk together

Repeat Chorus → Ending

'Till we can walk together, carry me
'Till we can walk together, carry me
'Till we can walk... together... carry me

Song Study: Carry Me (song of the unborn child)

The Bible tells us that when God finished making the world in Genesis chapter 1, that He looked at what He had made on the 6th day and declared it to be very good. Everything that we know as the material world, everything in the universe, seen and unseen was made by God and it was very good. Subsequent to that, sin entered the world through Adam and brought the curse of death and corruption into God's good creation. Now we live in a fallen world. We all deal with the effects of sin and death in this world, whether we believe in God or not. God also tells us that every person to ever breath the breath of life was made by God.

Isaiah 44:24 (NKJV) — 24 Thus says the Lord, your Redeemer, And He who formed you from the womb: "I am the Lord, who makes all things, Who stretches out the heavens all alone, Who spreads abroad the earth by Myself;

David pondered this question; in light of the vast universe, what is it about mankind that you pay any attention to us at all? You God gave us a brain, a soul, and capacities beyond our abilities to attain.

Psalms 8:3–6 (NKJV) — 3 When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, The moon and the stars, which You have ordained, 4 What is man that You are mindful of him, And the son of man that You visit him? 5 For You have made him a little lower than the angels, And You have crowned him with glory and honor. 6 You have made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands; You have put all things under his feet,

The Bible tells us that this is God's world, of His creation and design. He holds it together, and keeps it going day after day. This God of all creation, made you and makes every life that has lived. He tells you Himself that He loves you and thinks about you. We all are made in His image. We are the work of His hands. David again gives us insight into this intimacy.

Psalms 139:13–18 (NLT) — 13 You made all the delicate, inner parts of my body and knit me together in my mother's womb. 14 Thank you for making me so wonderfully complex! Your workmanship is marvelous—how well I know it. 15 You watched me as I was being formed in utter seclusion, as I was woven together in the dark of the womb. 16 You saw me before I was born. Every day of my life was recorded in your book. Every moment was laid out before a single day had passed. 17 How precious are your thoughts about me, O God. They cannot be numbered! 18 I can't even count them; they outnumber the grains of sand! And when I wake up, you are still with me!

You are an expression of God's glory that is intended to reflect His image in the world and to the world. Your Maker knows your name, every day you will live, and when that last day will come. He also knows every life that is born, unborn, or to be born. Jesus loves every life with an everlasting love. He proved that love when He willingly died on the cross to make the way for every life to be redeemed back to God.

The Bible tells us that not every life will be saved, but rather everyone that has put their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ will be saved. Remember, God is Just and Merciful.

Believe in Jesus today.
