DAY 1: ARRIVE AT YOUR HOTEL IN LIMA FOLLOWING YOUR INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT TO PERU!

Upon your arrival in Lima, please look for your PEVITOURS host, who will be holding a sign displaying your name. We understand that after a long flight, you may feel fatigued, so we aim to alleviate the stress of navigation by transporting you directly to your hotel.

Discovering the city of kings.

DAY 2: CITY TOURS IN THE CITY OF LIMA.

Pick up at your accommodation and tour of the city of Lima, where you will visit the Miraflores area. You will have the opportunity to enjoy the charming Parque del Amor and the emblematic sculpture "El Beso", which offers panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean.

Next, we will take a panoramic tour of Huaca Pucllana, a fascinating pre-Incan archaeological site. We will also visit the exclusive El Olivar Forest in San Isidro, a natural oasis in the middle of the city.

Next, we'll explore Lima's Historic Center, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Stops include Plaza San Martín, surrounded by colonial architecture; Jirón de la Unión, a pedestrian thoroughfare steeped in history; La Merced Church, an example of Lima Baroque; and Plaza Mayor, home to the Lima Cathedral and Government Palace.

The tour will end at the Monastery of San Francisco, famous for its catacombs and historic library. Afterwards, return to the hotel.

Paracas

DAY 3: LIMA - PARACAS BUS BALLESTAS ISLAND - NASCA.

03:30 a.m. Passengers will be picked up and taken to the bus station, from where we will head from Lima to the Paracas Peninsula, home to the most important wildlife sanctuary on the Peruvian coast.

07:25 a.m. Upon arrival at the bus station, you will be met for transfer to the Paracas pier, where you will begin the boat ride to the Ballestas Islands. During this two-hour ride, you will have the opportunity to observe the Candelabro figure, an imposing figure engraved in the desert of the Paracas Peninsula. Afterwards, we will continue towards the islands, where you will be able to enjoy the rich fauna of this beautiful place, which includes diverse birds such as pelicans and cormorants, as well as numerous sea lions and Humboldt penguins.

10:00 a.m. Return and free time.

11:00 a.m. Transfer to the bus station for departure to the city of Nasca, where we will spend the night.

Upon arrival in Nazca, you will be transferred to your selected hotel. It is recommended to have dinner at the hotel.

DAY 4: OVERFLIGHT OF THE NASCA LINES BUS TO AREQUIPA CITY.

Early in the morning, after enjoying a delicious breakfast, we will head to the Nasca airfield to board a small plane that will allow us to fly over the enigmatic Nazca Lines. The flight, which will last approximately 30 minutes, will depart from Nasca towards the figures, where 12 notable designs can be observed, including: The Astronaut (135 meters), the Hummingbird (97 meters), the Monkey (110 meters) and the Condor (135 meters), among others.

- Flights operate from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the Pampas de Jumana. Schedules may be modified due to weather conditions.
- You will fly in modern Cessna 207A aircraft, piloted by professionals experienced in the area and climate.
- All flights comply with rigorous safety standards, in accordance with the country's Aeronautical Regulations.
- Before taking off, our pilot will provide recommendations to capture the best photographs and fully enjoy the flight.

In the afternoon, we will begin our journey towards the city of Arequipa, which will take approximately eight and a half hours, crossing deserts and coastal valleys.

Arrival in the city of Arequipa and transfer to the selected hotel.

DAY 5: AREQUIPA SIGHTSEEING TOURS & SANTA CATALINA CONVENT.

In the afternoon, embark on an immersive city tour to explore the enchanting "White City" of Arequipa and the serene Santa Catalina Convent. Your journey begins in Arequipa's historic center, where colonial churches, plazas, and buildings constructed from white sillar stone create a breathtaking urban landscape, framed by the majestic Misti Volcano. As you stroll through the vibrant streets, you will fully absorb the city's lively atmosphere and rich colonial heritage.

The tour's highlight is the Santa Catalina Convent, a vast religious complex that resembles a city within a city. With its vividly painted walls, charming pathways, and tranquil courtyards, the convent provides a unique glimpse into the secluded lives of the nuns who have resided there since the 16th century. Explore the peaceful cloisters, picturesque gardens, and richly adorned chapels, and appreciate the distinctive blend of Spanish and indigenous architectural styles. After the tour, you will return to your hotel, night free for your own activities.

EXPLORE THE WHITE CITY

AREQUIPA

DAY 6: EXCURSION TO COLCA - OVERNIGHT IN CHIVAY.

In the morning, after a hearty breakfast, you'll begin your journey to Colca Canyon, a stunning natural wonder in Peru. Your first stop is Pampas Cañahuas, where you can see vicuñas grazing in their habitat amid the breathtaking Andean landscapes.

Next, you'll visit the Mirador of the Andes for panoramic views and great photo opportunities. Continue to the Chucura crater to learn about the region's unique volcanic formations. At the Mirador of Chivay, appreciate the ancient pre-Inca terraces showcasing advanced agricultural practices.

Arriving in Chivay around 13:00, you'll check into your hotel and enjoy a box lunch tailored for high altitude. In the afternoon, explore the area or relax in the famous thermal baths, known for their therapeutic benefits.

As evening falls, gather for a local dinner at 20:00, sharing stories and reflecting on the day's adventures before your journey into the beautiful Colca Canyon.

DAY 9: LAKE TITICACA EXCURSION UROS AND TAQUILE.

Early in the morning, after breakfast, you will take a full-day motorboat excursion on the waters of Lake Titicaca, heading to the unique Floating Islands of the Uros, ancient inhabitants of the lake, known as the Water Tribe. These Andean natives have built their own islands, periodically adding new layers of totora, a unique plant, as well as their houses and boats.

The motorboat ride will then continue to Taquile Island, inhabited by Quechua-speaking natives who have developed efficient and original social systems as well as a refined hand-weaving technique passed down through generations. After enjoying lunch at a local Taquile inn, you will take a walk through the various hills and archaeological sites of this 6km-long island. In the afternoon, you will return and transfer to your selected hotel, leaving the night free to enjoy.

THE CAPITAL OF FOLKLORE

DAY 8: AREQUIPA TO PUNO BY BUS

After breakfast at the hotel, free morning, 13:00 transfer to the bus station. This journey is an excellent opportunity to enjoy the landscapes that surround us, as the route is full of picturesque views that reflect the beauty of the region. During the trip, we will be able to observe imposing mountains, green fields and, perhaps, some local communities that give us an insight into the lifestyle in this area.

Once we arrive at the bus station, we will make sure that everything is in order before boarding the vehicle. The journey to Puno by bus is quite comfortable.

Upon arrival in Puno, the first impression is often striking, as the city is located on the shores of the majestic Lake Titicaca, the highest navigable lake in the world. After disembarking, we will proceed with the transfer to the selected hotel.

DAY 10: PUNO CUSCO BY TOURIST BUS ROUTE OF THE SUN.

07:00 After breakfast, you will be picked up from your hotel to embark towards the city of Cusco along the "Route of the Sun", a journey that offers breathtaking views of the Andean landscape and Peru's rich cultural heritage. This full-day bus tour includes five key stops at historical and cultural sites:

- Pucará: The first stop is at the Pucará Museum, where you can explore the artifacts and history of the pre-Incan civilization, as well as admire the famous Pukará bulls.
- La Raya: At the highest point of the journey, you can enjoy stunning views of the Andes, capturing the natural beauty of the region.
- Sicuni: We will pause for lunch in Sicuni, providing a moment to relax and sample the local cuisine in a charming Andean village.
- Raqchi: We will visit the impressive Temple of Wiracocha, an important archaeological site that reflects the architectural splendor of the Inca Empire.
- Andahuaylillas: We will end the tour stops with a visit to the Church of San Pedro in Andahuaylillas, known as the "Sistine Chapel of the Americas" for its exquisite interior artwork.

The journey will conclude in Cusco, the historic heart of the Inca Empire, setting the stage for your next adventure. Along the way, you will enjoy guided commentary and comfortable onboard amenities, making your experience unforgettable.

DAY 11: CITY TOURS IN CUSCO CITY + 4 INCA RUINS.

Free morning. At 12:30, You will be picked up at the hotel to embark on a guided tour of the historic city of Cusco, where we will explore the Plaza de Armas, the Cathedral and the Temple of the Sun.

Afterwards, we will leave the city to visit the Inca sites of Qenqo, Tambomachay, Puca Pucará and the imposing fortress of Sacsayhuamán.

- Qenqo: This archaeological site features fascinating carved rock formations and underground canals, believed to have been used by the Incas for ceremonial and religious purposes.
- Tambomachay: Known as the "Baths of the Inca," Tambomachay is home to water fountains that were used for rituals and purification. Its architecture and hydraulic engineering are worthy of admiration.
- Puca Pucará: This ancient military fortress guards the access to Cusco and is characterized by its reddish stones.
- Sacsayhuamán: This impressive fortress stands out for its enormous, precisely carved stones that make up its walls. It also offers panoramic views of Cusco.

At the end of the visit, we will return to the city of Cusco.

Free night.

DAY 12: EXCURSION TO THE SACRED VALLEY OF THE INCAS.

After breakfast at 07:45, pick up from the hotel to depart for the excursion to the “Sacred Valley of the Incas”, which includes a series of picturesque villages, agricultural terraces and archaeological sites. We will have the opportunity to haggle with the vendors and explore the typical indigenous market of Pisac, where a Catholic mass will be celebrated on Sunday in Quechua, the native language.

Lunch will take place at a local restaurant in the Sacred Valley.

In the afternoon, we will pass through the villages of Calca and Urubamba until we reach the Inca Fortress and Citadel of Ollantaytambo, built to protect the entrance to this part of the valley from possible enemies from the lowland forests. This impressive structure consists of a series of superimposed terraces of carved stones, accessible via long stairs. We will have the opportunity to walk through the charming streets of the nearby town, which was a religious and agricultural center during the Inca Empire, and thus better understand the military strategy against possible invasions.

On our way back to Cusco, we will visit the picturesque Andean town of Chinchero, where the remains of the royal estate of Tupac Inca Yupanqui are located. There, we will be able to admire the well-preserved Inca Wall in the Main Plaza and visit the beautiful colonial temple built on Inca foundations, which features interesting frescoes in the portico.

Return to Cusco in the afternoon.

DAY 13: CUSCO MACHUPICCHU THE LOST CITY OF THE INCAS - NIGHT IN MACHUPICCHU TOWN.

MACHUPICCHU

THE LOST CITY OF THE INCAS

The day begins early in the morning, when we gather to transfer to the Cusco train station. The excitement is palpable as we head towards the famous Inca Citadel of Machu Picchu, a place that sparks the curiosity of many travelers and adventurers. The train ride takes approximately three hours, during which we enjoy landscapes of mountains and valleys that leave us breathless. Upon arrival at the Aguas Calientes station, we prepare for a 30-minute bus ride that will take us along a winding 6-kilometer road, surrounded by lush nature.

Finally, we arrive at Machu Picchu, where the majesty of the Inca Citadel welcomes us. We will participate in a guided tour to explore this archaeological site that is a World Heritage Site. The guide will take us to see the Main Plaza, a central space that reflects the grandeur of Inca architecture. Then, we will head to the Circular Tower, a place full of mystery and astronomical significance.

We cannot miss visiting the Sacred Intiwatana, a ritual stone believed to have been used for agriculture and astronomical observation. We will continue our tour to the Royal Quarters, where nobles and dignitaries stayed, and marvel at the Temple of the Three Windows, which offers breathtaking views and exceptional architectural design. We will also explore several cemeteries that tell us stories about the funerary practices of the Incas.

After a day full of discovery and wonder, we will spend the night in the charming town of Aguas Calientes, where we can share our impressions and reflect on the experience lived in one of the most emblematic places in the world.

DAY 14: MACHU PICCHU TO CUSCO BY TRAIN.

After breakfast, you will have the morning free, which represents an excellent opportunity to wake up early and enjoy a beautiful sunrise that dyes the sky with vibrant colors. Aguas Calientes, known for its natural beauty, offers the possibility of exploring its charming streets, full of craft shops and cozy restaurants.

Don't forget to visit the famous hot springs, an ideal place to relax and rejuvenate, where you can immerse yourself in the warm waters surrounded by a stunning mountain setting. It's a perfect time to unwind and enjoy nature.

If you prefer, you can opt for a second visit to Machu Picchu or venture to climb Huayna Picchu, where you will be rewarded with spectacular views of the Inca citadel and its surroundings.

In the afternoon, you will be transferred to the train station to return to the city of Cusco. Once there, you will be taken to the hotel you have selected, where you can rest and reflect on the wonderful experiences of the day.
