Our mission

Adobe is changing the world through digital experiences.

Adobe is virtually everywhere you look. Whether it's a mobile application, a Facebook game, a YouTube video, a print ad, a logo, an e-commerce business, an e-magazine, or an online banking application, chances are, it was touched by Adobe technology.

We have always been a leader in creating engaging experiences through the content creation and delivery ecosystem. Since 1982, we have empowered businesses to reach consumers on any computer, browser, or device — in sync with the latest technologies and platforms.

Adobe is the global leader in digital marketing and digital media solutions. Our tools and services allow our customers to create groundbreaking digital content, deploy it across media and devices, measure and optimize it over time, and achieve greater business success. We help our customers make, manage, measure, and optimize their content across every channel and screen.

Our values

These four values define WHOWE ARE. Let them come through in all that you do. Consider them in your daily work and actions—with customers, prospects, and team members.

Genuine

We are sincere, trustworthy, and reliable. Operating with integrity, being ethical, and treating others with respect is at the heart of Adobe's culture.

Innovative

We are highly creative and strive to connect new ideas with business realities. Ideas are welcome from everyone in the company.

Exceptional

At Adobe, good enough is not good enough. We are committed to creating exceptional experiences that delight our employees and customers.

Involved

People are our greatest asset. We are inclusive, open, and actively engaged with our customers, partners, employees, and the communities we serve.

Our personality tenets

These five tenets define our brand tone, personality, and HOW WE EXPRESS OURSELVES in all verbal and written communications.

Clean

Simple design and language is a sign of respect for our customers—respect for their work, time, and process. If you think about it, simplicity is a common courtesy.

Community

We've committed to a highly collaborative relationship with the creative and professional marketing community. Sometimes we educate; sometimes we simply participate alongside them. The community is the creative firepower, and we exist to share with them—share tools, ideas, and successes.

Captivating

Through smart use of design and data, we create content that captivates, and that means designing for the end user, making it as personal as possible. Creativity and precision are at the heart of all we do. Everything we put out into the world should be equally inspiring and relevant.

For ward

We challenge ourselves and others to aim higher and never settle. Boldness, unexpectedness, and optimism drive us forward, inspiring new categories and tools. As a tech company with creativity at its core, we have a responsibility to be cutting edge.

Inspiring

Our enthusiasm about the future, and what's possible, is what energizes our company and each one of us. A sense of wonder and enchantment is infused into everything we say, do, and make.

Tenets: Clean

“Everything should be made as simple as possible but not simpler.”

—Albert Einstein

DESIGN SUCCINCTLY

One clear graphic is better than a few abstract images. And 10 clear words are better than 20 muddy ones.

GET OUT OF THE USER’S WAY

We’re here to help people be productive, so let’s not block their path with any superfluous functionality, design, or lingo.

LET USERS DRAW THEIR OWN CONCLUSIONS

They can decide if it’s amazing. Simply inspire them to experience it—don’t tell them what to think.

LIMIT SUPERLATIVES AND HYPERBOLE

Which can be tough. Because you may be working on something that’s the best... version... ever. But the truth is, it’s better not to boast. Hey, nobody likes the kid who walks around bragging about himself all the time.

VISUAL TIPS

DESIGN WITH CLARITY

Design what you intend to communicate in the most straightforward and clean way.

VERBAL TIPS

BE CONVERSATIONAL Use an apostrophe.

BE CONCISE

If you can’t say it in 140 characters... you get the point. Be economical. Say it once, say it well, and move on.

SHOW, DON’T TELL

A picture is worth a thousand words.

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

Tenets: Community

"If you want to go fast, go alone; if you want to go far, go together."

—African proverb

OPEN UP

Invite users in and engage them as equals, and the brand will come to life even more vibrantly. Opening up the Adobe logo to interpretation is a great example of this.

LEAD & LEARN

On one hand, we're thought leaders; it's our responsibility and privilege to share our knowledge with the world. On the other, it's about championing our users; by helping marketers reinvent themselves, we, in turn, continually reinvent ourselves.

CO - C RE ATE

Elevate and amplify our collaborators so that they get visibility and credit.

BE A GOOD LISTENER

Be so attentive, so curious, so open-eared and open-minded that you soak up not just the words or the content or the idea, but what was actually intended.

CREATE A DIALOGUE, NOT A MONOLOGUE

Respect for our customers means a multivoice conversation, not a one-sided one. (Remember what we said about the guy who talks about himself all the time...)

RESPECT THE USER JOURNEY

Allow for growth and discovery, but don't overwhelm; keep the story focused.

VISUAL TIPS

ENABLE LEARNING

Create opportunities for education, conversation, and thought leadership across the digital media and marketing industry.

COLLABORATE WITH THE COMMUNITY

Invite participation and exploration.

ALWAYS GIVE ATTRIBUTION

Attribute the work properly; give credit where credit is due.

VERBAL TIPS

EMBRACE PARTICIPATION

Champion the original work of our customers and community.

TWO WAY CONVERSATION

Cast a wide net for ideas, and be open to what you get back in return.

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

Tenets: Captivating

"The world is but a canvas to our imagination."

— Henry David Thoreau

SWEAT THE SMALL STUFF

Tiny details add up into an industry-changing whole.

DON'T COMPROMISE

Especially when it comes to design.

KEEP IT REAL

Speak and act in a way that feels natural, comfortable, and complementary to how people think.

TELL BIGGER STORIES

Be discerning and create awe. Make it a story, communicate the big picture, and always have a narrative thread that your audience can relate to.

EXPRESS WITH EXAMPLES OR DEMOS

It's amazing how powerful and resonant a well-designed experiential piece of communication can be.

SHOW EXPERIENCES

Be human, be contextual. We create tools that people use with their hands, so the idea of personal connection should shine in all we do.

VERBAL TIPS

HAVE A CLEAR POINT OF VIEW

Assume our audience is contemporary, intelligent, media-savvy, and thoughtful—no over-explaining or marketing speak required. Present information hierarchically—know what's important and what's less important.

PERSONALIZE FEATURES

Help people see the possibilities of our features. Make it matter, make it human.

BE CONVERSATIONAL

Speak like you're explaining to a friend or relative.

INFUSE PERSONALITY

Adding some personality, especially to headlines, is a clear way to sidestep corporate jargon.

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

Tenets: Forward

“The greater danger for most of us lies not in setting our aim too high and falling short, but in setting our aim too low and achieving our mark.”

— Michelangelo

UP YOUR GAME

If you’re not continually improving, what’s the point? Just as we slowly disclose more and more of our UI to people as they learn, look to push yourself to do better too.

GET OUT OF YOUR COMFORT ZONE

It’s about thinking boldly and broadly—outside the silo. If that means asking for help or collaborating with someone new, go for it.

LET DATA SURPRISE YOU

It’s the future of our business. And it has huge potential for creatives and marketers alike.

EMBRACE RISK & TENSION

When you do, it usually pays off. The right tensions help us stay true to ourselves and the user.

VISUAL TIPS

PIQUE CURIOSITY

Understand the power of an image to spark a visceral reaction in the viewer and tickle the mind. Choose images and moments that have a clear POV yet leave the viewer inspired to want more.

PUSH THE PARADIGM

Just as we enter new product categories, we explore new ways to visualize our message and make experiences feel fresh.

VERBAL TIPS

REVEAL NEW TIPS AND IDEAS

Embrace the possibilities when discussing the applications of a product. Doing so encourages interaction.

Use new member onboarding as an opportunity to present ways for them to expand their skills.

TELL FUTURISTIC STORIES

Create forward-looking narratives and content by using our past as the springboard to our future.

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

Tenets: Inspiring

“The power of imagination makes us infinite.”

— John Muir

LET THE DETAILS BE GRAND

Because when you do, the result will almost always be greater than the sum of its parts.

BE RESILIENT

We won't get to future successes without the right failures—and the insights that come from them. You don't have to be perfect, but you do have to be able to bounce back.

KNOW YOUR IMPACT

Anything each of us does, no matter how small, will either help or hurt the company and brand. So go for it wholeheartedly, don't look back (launching Creative Cloud is a great example of this), and don't rest until the user is happy. And hey, we are users too, so we know when we've succeeded or failed.

BE CONFIDENT AND OPTIMISTIC

A company that believes in itself is infinitely more powerful. Speak and act with confidence.

VISUAL TIPS

DESIGN WITH ENTHUSIASM

When you put energy and positivity into your work, it shows.

VERBAL TIPS

PLAY WITH NEW IDEAS AND WORDS

As technology changes, so does the language to describe it. We have to speak in a way that's in line with the current vernacular, but we also have a responsibility, as a thought leader, to be unexpected.

BE PASSIONATELY OPEN-MINDED

Not only is it contagious (you'll inspire your coworkers), but it's also likely to bring positive results, for both you personally and Adobe. Along these lines, feel free to enumerate the possibilities of a given product or service.

Which logo do I use?

START HERE

Who is the communication coming from?

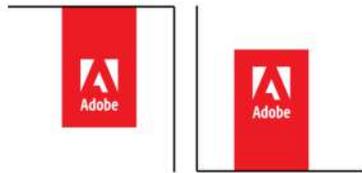

Adobe

IS THERE A TOP OR BOTTOM "EDGE" THAT THE LOGO CAN BLEED FROM?

An "edge" can be in print or online—the edge of paper, screen, email, web banner, etc.

Yes

No

RED TAG ADOBE LOGO

Use the red tag just once in any communication; sign off multi-page communications with the standard logo.

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company
See page 15 for more details.

STANDARD ADOBE LOGO

Use when layout, production, or the item doesn't allow the logo to sit at an edge.

See page 16 for more details.

STANDARD ADOBE LOGO

A trademark license is required for any third-party use.
Always use the standard logo for third-party communications.
(The red tag logo is for Adobe's use only.)

A third party

Sponsorships
Co-marketing
To represent a partnership

Using the red tag logos

The red tag logos are reserved for Adobe use only.

WHEN USING THE RED TAG LOGOS, REMEMBER:

1. You need a top or bottom edge for it to hang from.

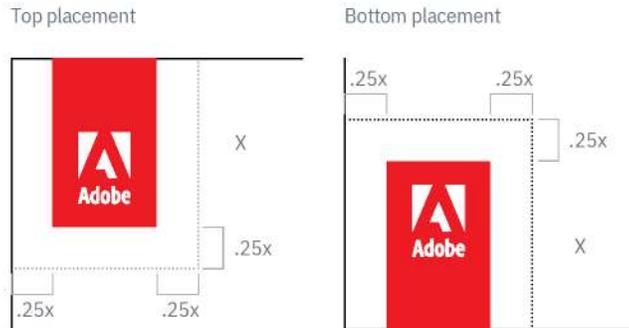

Note that there are two different versions for placement at the top or bottom—they are not interchangeable.

2. It should be used just once in any communication.

Multi-page or multi-screen communications should use the red tag logo as an introduction and the standard logo as the sign-off.

3. It can only be used in red.

MINIMUM CLEAR SPACE

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

SIZE

Use them at exactly the size they are posted.

The logos are posted in exactly the size they should be used for all screen and print communications less than or equal to 11x17”.

That includes:

- 8.5 x 11”
- 11 x 17”
- 5 x 7” postcard
- 6 x 9” booklet
- A4
- E-mails and newsletters
- Web banners
- Web pages
- Presentations
- A3

Add a bleed when necessary for the red field, but be careful not to change the proportions of the visible area.

For formats larger than 11x17” or A3, scale the red tag logo proportionally to the piece.

COLOR

The red tag logo should only be used in Adobe red.

For black and white printing, or for design/legibility issues with the red, switch to the standard Adobe logo.

COLOR	PMS	C	M	Y	K	R	G	B	HEX
Adobe Red	485 C	0	100	100	0	255	0	0	FF0000

UTistlineg the standard logos

Other standard Adobe logos may be used by third parties under license only.

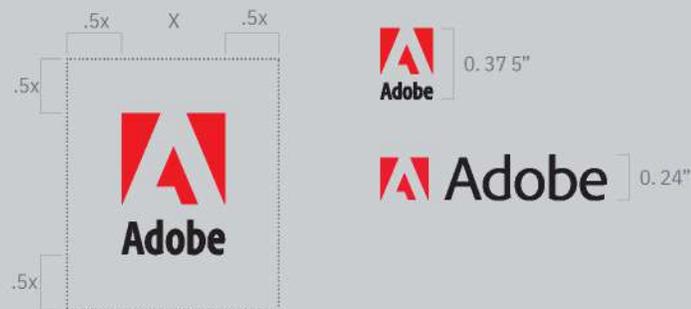

Note: The “A” inside the logo should always be transparent, letting the background color show through.

USUSBE -THHEEA SDTANDARD LOGO FOR THREE MAIN PURPOSES:

1. To close a piece (i.e. back of datasheet or brochure)
2. When there is no top or bottom edge from which to hang the tag
3. By third parties, under license only (sponsorships, co-marketing, etc)

CLEAR SPACE & MINIMUM SIZE

The clear space guidance shown below applies to all versions.

STANDARD

Sidebar

NON-STANDARD (SEE PAGE 21 FOR EXAMPLES)

Horizontal: Use ONLY when limited vertical space requires.

“A” graphic: For special use cases only, done in collaboration with Brand.

COLOR

- Primary: Adobe red with black or white
- Secondary: All black or all white
- Other: On promotional items only, other colors may be used for a tone-on-tone effect, i.e. a gray logo on a gray sweatshirt.

The “A” inside the logo should always be transparent, letting the background color show through.

Logo examples: Print

Adobe print pieces, where a bleed is possible, should use the red tag logo since there is an edge for it to hang from.

Multi-page pieces may also use the standard logo to close the piece as shown below. (Remember, the red tag should only be used once per piece.)

Logo examples: Events

When creating event graphics, consider the edge of the graphic an edge from which the red tag logo could hang.

In booth graphics, the red tag logo may appear more than once, but it should only be used once per “area” within the booth. For example, in the demo station area, only one panel has the red tag logo.

Standing banner The red tag logo is placed at the top for better visibility at standing height.

Hanging banners The red tag logo is placed at the bottom for better visibility when looking up at the banner from the ground.

Large logo-only banners

The red tag logo can be scaled to the size of a hanging banner. In this case—hanging from the top of the building—the building acts as the “edge” from which it hangs. It could also be used indoors hanging from a ceiling, etc. As this is a very bold use, only one should be used in any particular space.

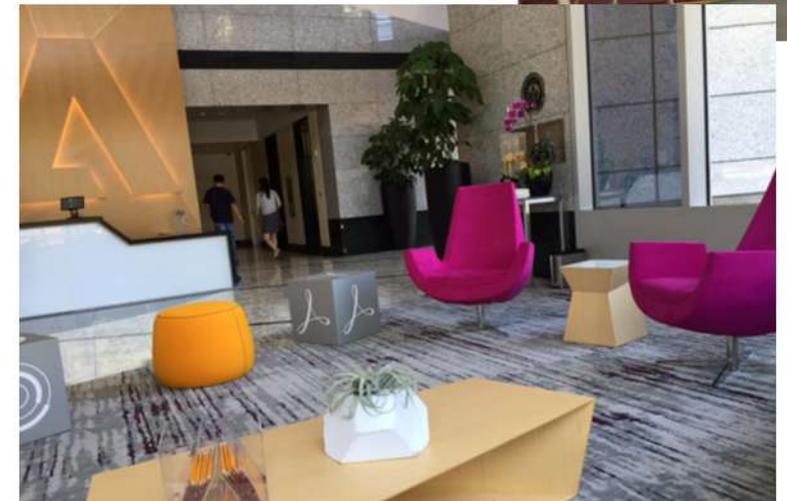

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

Logo examples: Facilities

Note: even on walls, buildings, etc. the "A" inside the logos should always be transparent, letting the wall show through.

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

Logo examples: Non-standard

THE HORIZONTAL LOGO

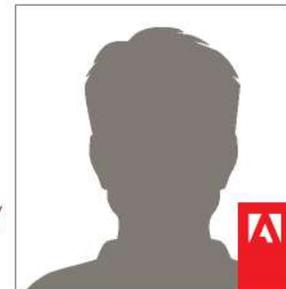

The horizontal logo should ONLY be used in very small spaces such as on pens to retain legibility.

(Retail display)

THE “A” GRAPHIC WITHOUT “ADOBE”

Use of the “A” graphic alone is reserved for very specific use cases where the design warrants a more graphic treatment of the logo. All use of this version of the logo must be done in collaboration with brand. Please e-mail brand@adobe.com if you believe you have a use for this version of the logo.

Used for Slack profile pictures to identify employees when communicating with customers.

Logo examples: Third-party use

All third-party communications use the standard Adobe logo (under license only), not the red tag logo.

This is a rare case, but shows that the Adobe logo may be recolored to match the other partner logos shown.

Incorrect logo use

Do not alter the Adobe logo in any way.

Do not animate, color, rotate, skew, or apply effects to the logo. Do not separate the elements. Never attempt to create the logo yourself, change the font, or alter the size or proportions. Do not attempt to stage the logo yourself on a tag or alter the space between the Adobe logo and the red field.

DONT'S

1. Don't move "Adobe".
2. Don't remove "Adobe".
3. Don't apply any effects.
4. Don't rotate the logo.
5. Don't skew or attempt to make the logo 3-dimensional in any way.
6. Don't make a pattern or texture out of the logo.
7. Don't alter the transparency of the logo.
8. Don't recolor the logo.
9. Don't alter the tag to run horizontally.
10. Don't crop or extend the tag.
11. Don't move the logo within the tag.
12. Don't recolor the tag or the logo within the tag.
13. Don't place the red logo tag at the right or left edge of a piece - follow clear space requirements.

Not shown:

- Don't combine the logo with any other elements—such as logos, words, graphics, photos, slogans or symbols that might seem to create a hybrid mark.
- Don't display the logo in a way that suggests that a third party's product is an Adobe product, or that the Adobe name is part of a third party's product name. Please note: Use of the Adobe logo by a third party requires a license agreement

Visual identity

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

Using color

Our corporate color system reflects a rich, dynamic, multi-dimensional Adobe.

We use both dynamic and neutral colors that complement each other and can be used in any combination as long as the integrity of the brand is not diminished.

WHAT DOES THAT MEAN?

Be creative.

It's an open system without a defined color palette. When pairing colors together, use a combination of dynamic and neutral colors, not all dynamic or all neutral.

USE OF RED

Red is elevated to “special” status, reserved primarily for the corporate mark as a nod to our history that is reinforced in every communication.

It shouldn't be used as a primary color choice on any materials or communications, or as a text color.

PRODUCT COLORS

Product colors will still be defined and can be found in their respective brand guides

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

Typography: Adobe Clean

As with our logo, consistent use of our corporate typeface—Adobe Clean—reinforces Adobe’s brand identity.

Adobe Clean is NOT available for partner use.

ADOBE'S CORPORATE TYPEFACE IS ADOBE CLEAN.

- Adobe Clean is proprietary to Adobe. It is not available for license to the general public or for partners to use.

- Auto or metric kerning is recommended. Please follow the guidelines on the right for tracking at various sizes.

Alternate glyphs are available for “g” or “g” and “1” or “1.”

The color red is reserved for the corporate logo; avoid using it as a highlight color in text.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

- Adobe Clean supports all European languages, including Greek, Russian, and Ukrainian.
- Adobe Clean Han supports Japanese, Korean, Simplified Chinese, and Traditional Chinese.

Typography: Using other fonts

In the rare instance that a font becomes part of a graphical illustration in a multimedia or campaign communication, it may become necessary to use a font other than Adobe Clean.

In these cases, always ensure you are using an Adobe font—and preferably an Adobe original font.

In cases where you feel another font than Adobe Clean is necessary, please ensure you work with both the brand and creative services teams. E-mail brand@adobe.com with your request.

Imagery: Overview

These assets ARENOT available for partner use.

The brand imagery creation involves a system that allows for the combination of aspirational, conceptual imagery and dynamic lifestyle photography that is authentic, meaningful, and immersive.

IMAGERY SYSTEM:

1. Corporate and product imagery

High concept imagery for corporate, product, or program identity. Do not create your own identity; contact the brand strategy team.

2. Reportage lifestyle photography to document the customer/employee experience.

3. Conceptual imagery

to illustrate solutions, themes, or infographics.

Corporate and product imagery

Corporate imagery: Introduction

The Adobe brand is rooted in our community. To celebrate the spirit of creativity within the community, we're inviting a broad mix of creatives to reinterpret our logo—putting their mark on ours.

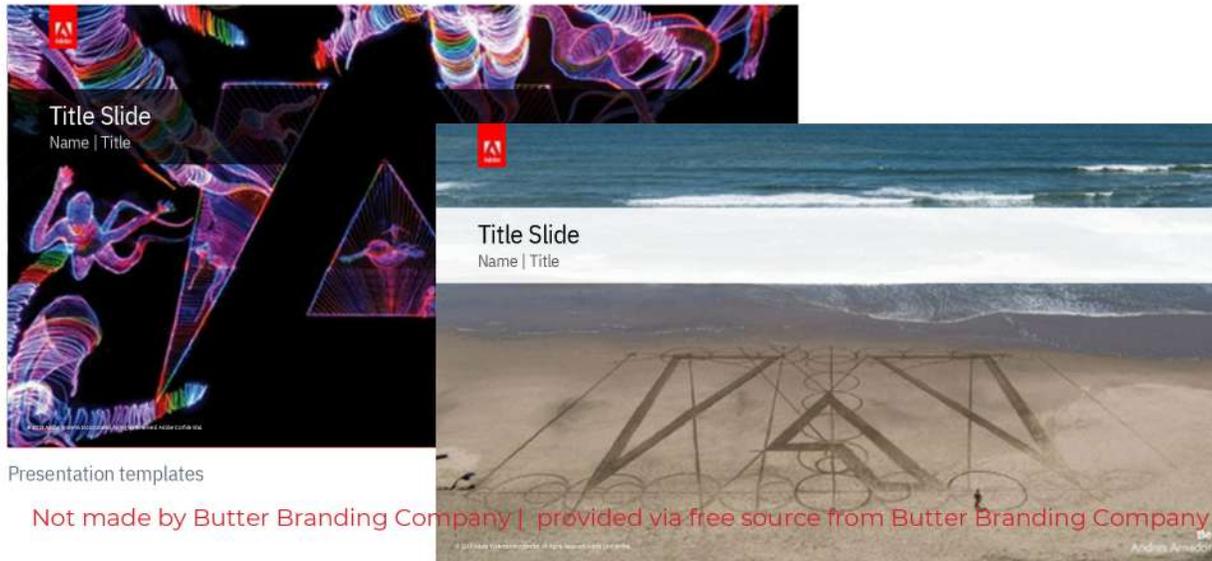

We call it Adobe Remix.

We invited a select group of creatives to express what Adobe means to them through their work. We asked them to play, experiment, hack, make, socialize, datafy, dimensionalize, illustrate, and mash up our logo any way they see fit as part of the Adobe logo remix. Learn more on Behance.

The program is by invitation only, and the amazing work will be featured as our corporate imagery, giving attribution to the artist in the communication whenever possible.

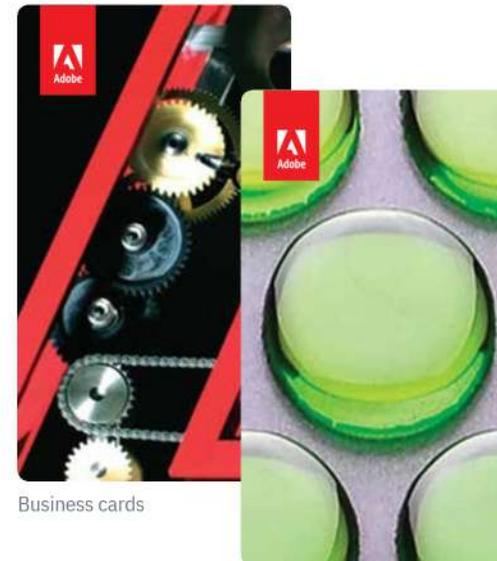

Below are some of the completed pieces to date, but there is more to come.

Please note that these are commissioned by the brand strategy team; do not create or commission your own remix works. If you have an artist you'd like to suggest for this project, email brand@adobe.com.

Corporate imagery: Things to know

The most important things to know about the Adobe corporate imagery:

- 1. GIVE CREDIT TO THE ARTISTS. All of these pieces were done in collaboration with our creative community. And in support of them, we want to include attribution to the featured artist right in the communication whenever it's possible. There will be times when layout or functionality doesn't allow for it, but those should be the exception, not the rule.
- 2. Each of the images carries its own tone and theme that can help support your message. When choosing an image for your communication, consider your audience, the message, and the impact you want to achieve.
Are you working on a thought leadership or corporate-level communication? Consider using an image with red to help reinforce the Adobe brand, i.e. Goodby, Evolution Bureau, or Robert Hodgkin.
Do you need an image for a celebration? Maybe use Sagmeister & Walsh.
- 3. None of these pieces represent any particular product, program, department, or business unit. Use them freely as appropriate for each communication.
- 4. When incorporating additional elements such as type or the Adobe logo with the imagery, ensure that all those elements are distinct and legible against the image.
- 5. The imagery is designed to be flexible and offer a wide range of possibilities. Each image can be cropped in a number of ways, zooming in or out based on the layout. The full "A" doesn't always need to be visible. For simple communications with minimal text, showing the full "A" is likely the right choice. But for more complex communications, or when combining with photography, zoom way out so the image becomes more of a textural background. See page 32 for more.

Corporate imagery: Cropping and scale

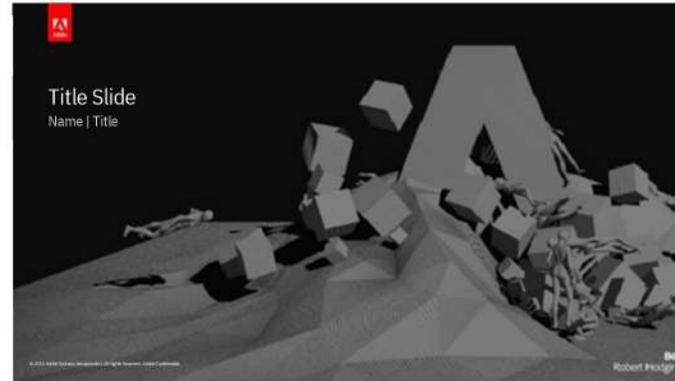

The flexibility of the imagery is most evident when it comes to cropping and scale. The images can be cropped and zoomed in or out in an assortment of ways to fit your layout. The full “A” doesn’t always need to be visible.

But don't rotate, mirror, reflect, collage, or alter the images in any way.

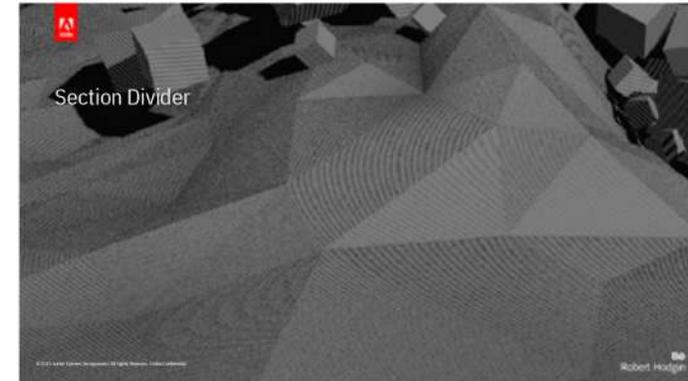

Uncropped image

Presentation template cover slide

Presentation template section divider

Business card

HERE IS THE SAME IMAGE, USED THREE WAYS.

Micro: Show the “A”

For simple communications with minimal text, crop to show the full “A.” For example, the presentation template cover slide.

Macro: Zoom out to create a textural background

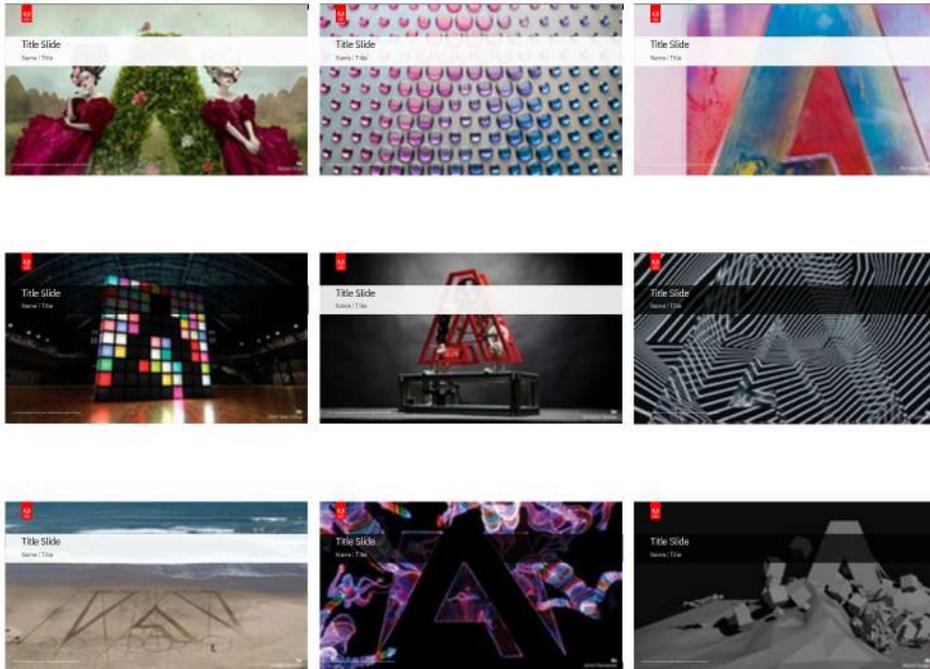

For small layouts or very complex communications, zoom way out so the image becomes more of a textural background. For example, the business cards.

Use both Consider using both styles when creating a series of communications. For example, the title slide of the presentation template shows the “A” and the section divider is zoomed out to differentiate it, while still creating a cohesive template. The same could be applied to a series of emails, event signage, etc.

Product & program imagery

Product imagery is NOT available for partner use.

OXIDIZED

Use this when telling a cross-cloud story.

It should be used first in the three Cloud lineup and then the individual crops can be used for content specific to Creative Cloud, Experience Cloud, or Document Cloud in the same communication, or at the same event.

PRODUCT AND PROGRAM IDENTITY IMAGERY

Use these as the primary representation of the product in communications focused on an individual product, rather than the cross-cloud story.

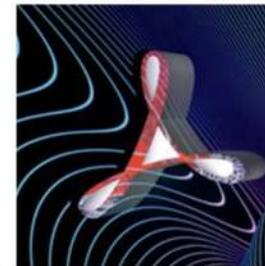

Please see individual product guidelines on Marketing Hub for complete usage details.

Adobe Creative Cloud

Adobe Experience Cloud

Adobe Document Cloud

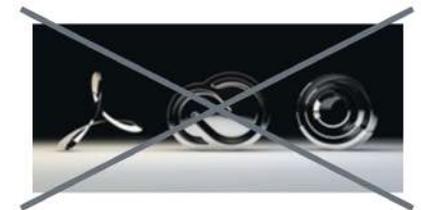

Questions? Need help?

Please do not alter the imagery in any way, including reordering the three cloud logos.

If you have particular business requirements or production needs, such as extending the background for a pullup banner, please contact the brand team or Adobe Studio.

Retired imagery

This image should no longer be used.

Photography

Our corporate photography is a reportage style, using a mix of atmospheres and details, depersonalized, and highly personal photos.

Lifestyle photography should be shot with the environment as hero rather than the individual, done in a reportage style, speaking in the visual vernacular of the customer. Natural light, genuine moments of engagement and collaboration, mixing color and black and white. Avoid literal visual metaphors.

A selection of images in each of the three categories at right is available on Marketing Hub. Try searching by each category and browsing from there.

If stock photos become necessary, reportage lifestyle photos should be chosen from Adobe Stock and sent to brand@adobe.com for review before licensing.

Atmospheric

Focuses on spaces, atmospheres, and details.

Depersonalized

We see people, but they aren't the primary focus of the image.

Personal

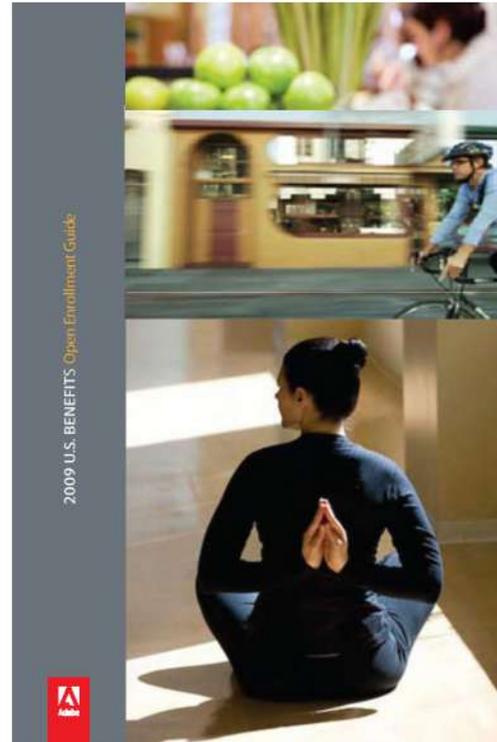

These are highly personal, but notice that we're capturing them in a moment, not posing for the camera.

Photography—Using photos together

Photos should document the customer and/or employee experience in an authentic way that allows the user to identify with the subject matter. When using more than one photo on the same page a mix of all types should be used. Never run photos together that depict the same emotion and the same camera angle. Try to pair images whose juxtaposition tells a bigger story.

DO
When using more than one photo on the same page a mix of all types should be used.

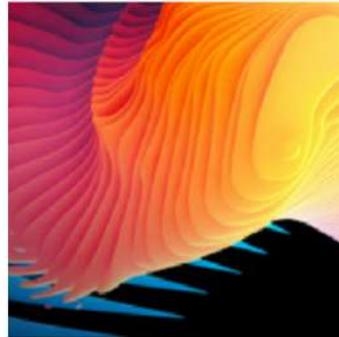

DON'T
Never run photos together that depict the same emotion and the same camera angle.

Logotypes

Styling the names of our products consistently is an essential part of maintaining a unified Adobe brand identity.

Logotypes ARE available for partner use.

Logotypes are available in all black and all white.

They may be used interchangeably based on the background color.

Examples:

Note: The use of “Adobe” in red combined with the product name in black has been discontinued.

Artwork for all product logotypes is available on Marketing Hub. Please don't (re)create logotypes on your own.

Product logos

Our logos are a visual shorthand for each key brand, product, solution, or service. They are designed to family together and be recognizable as distinctly Adobe. The logos below represent a partial list from our overall portfolio.

Product logos ARE available for partner use under license only.

USING THE LOGOS

Product logos are created when there is a functional need for an application icon, i.e. launching the app. Please do not create your own logos; email brand@adobe.com to discuss branding (naming, icon, identity) for new offerings.

Do not alter the logos in any way or remove the square tile.

Make sure you have “Scale stroke and effects” selected in Illustrator before scaling the logo.

Web, screen, PPT: Use the .png file, at the exact sizes posted. If necessary, scale down the 512px version, never below 48px.

Print: Use the .ai file labeled RGB.

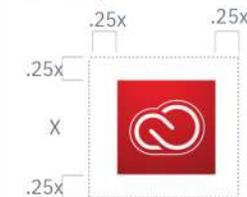

If a CMYK color is required, convert the color space of the RGB file. If a PMS version is required, please email brand@adobe.com.

Novelty items: Use the .ai file labeled PMS, ONLY when production requires flat color.

Program badges

All Adobe programs—both internal and externally facing—should go through the standard naming process with the brand strategy team. Approved programs that need an identity will have a badge created as shown below.

Based on the particular program name and any associate levels, descriptors, etc there are several options for the exact layout of the badge. But the overall design, including the font, remains the same for all programs.

Examples:

Each program will have individual guidelines which will include specifications for clear space, minimum size, etc.

Do not create your own badges, logos, or other identities; work with Brand Strategy to create them.

Infographics: Components

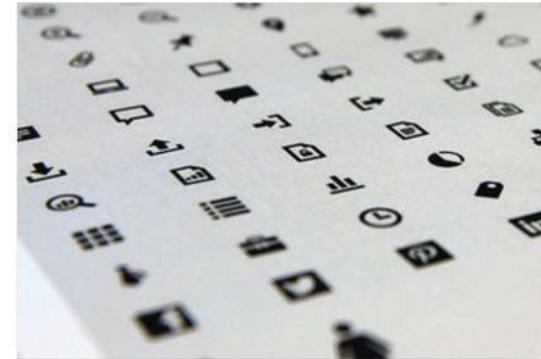

We take an editorial approach to creating infographics—sharing a clear, data-driven, and compelling story. Simply presenting data with no clear story arc, or using excessive visual metaphors, is not our approach.

Adobe Digital Index

Expect record sales for the 2012 holiday season.

Adobe predicts a record-setting $2-billion Cyber Monday, growing by 18% over 2011. Black Friday may fall from the second to the third largest online shopping day as Free Shipping Day occurs on a Monday for the first time, which tends to be the busiest online shopping day of the week. In addition, mobile will represent 23% of total online purchases this holiday, an increase of 110% over last year (13.5% from tablets, 6.5% from smartphones and 1% from other devices such as e-readers).

18% GROWTH
The biggest online shopping day of the year should see 18% YoY growth.

1.5x AVERAGE DAILY SALES
Over Monday, the second Monday in December and also a high-growth online shopping day, it is predicted to increase sales by 1.5x over a Monday for the rest of the year.

24% MOBILE SHARE
On Black Friday people will use their tablets and phones to shop more than any other day of the year.

LAST MINUTE BUMP
Sales will grow on Free Shipping Day (Dec 21st) by 12% and continue to increase through a Monday for the rest of the holiday.

12% BLACK FRIDAY
Black Friday is expected to be the second largest online sales day of 2012 when retailers will see a sales increase of 12% YoY.

300% CYBER MONDAY
Black and Cyber Monday will see a 347% increase in revenue compared to an average day throughout the year while online-only retailers will see sales increase by 20%.

150% GREEN MONDAY
The typical retailer can expect to see a sales increase of nearly one and a half times compared to an average day throughout the year.

DOUBLE FREE SHIPPING DAY
Purchases for jewelry will double on this day as a popular last minute gift for procrastinating shoppers.

43% 57% 36% 64%
For both Brick-and-Mortar and Online-only retailers, Cyber Monday accounts for more sales than Black Friday.

Increase in mobile sales
Mobile is expected to represent 23% of total online sales during the 2012 holiday season. Sales from mobile devices are projected to increase 10% compared to last year, with sales from tablets accounting 13.0% of total sales, more than double that of smartphones (5.1%) and other devices such as e-readers (2%).

Holiday shopping in Europe
European consumers are expected to start holiday shopping earlier and finish later than their US counterparts. While online sales in the US do not pick up significantly until Black Friday, European retailers were seeing average daily sales increases by 30% the first week of November and will see a similar spike immediately following Christmas.

Social media referrals to retail websites this holiday season is projected to double compared to last year.
Out of these social referral sources, referrals from Pinterest is expected to grow the most, doubling from 7% to 14% YoY.

Visit the interactive graph for daily updates on the actual shopping activity during the season and get more details by retail category, type, and geography.

The algorithms used to create the predictive analysis are based on more than 100 billion online visits to over 500 retail websites in the US and Europe over the past six years. The margin of error is less than 1% with a 95 percent confidence level and the forecast's methodology and degree of accuracy has been validated and verified by Statista.com, an independent analytics and research service provider.

NEED CUSTOM ITEMS?

Please use one of our preferred vendors listed below.

They have access to all of our artwork and they're familiar with our brand guidelines and review process.

ALL custom orders should go through brand review. Please send a proof to brand@adobe.com before going into production.

When ordering custom items, you're in a unique position to affect how we present the brand. Anything you create needs to reflect the Adobe brand and have a purpose. The goal is to create something interesting and/or useful that the receiver will keep. If you think it's something you would throw away, don't create it. Don't create branded disposables.

Think: Exceptional design. Sustainable. Creative. Fun. Useful.

The recipient should see it and say: Wow, cool. (And then put it to use.)

Not: Gee, thanks. (And then toss it.)

Branded merchandise: Wearables

The goal is create garments someone will truly enjoy wearing. We're not trying to put the biggest Adobe logo that will fit on a shirt. It can be subtle. It can be white. It can be tone-on-tone. Opt for subtle and sophisticated over big and red.

Look for stylish, well-fitting garments that people will love to wear.

The examples on the left use the standard logo in a subtle, not in-your-face way. Remember, the red tag Adobe logo needs an edge to hang from. On wearables, that typically means a physical tag sewn onto the garment.

The examples on the right show a physical tag sewn over the edge of the piece.

If using more than one type of imagery, ensure each element has adequate clear space or keep them separate.

Branded merchandise: Gifts

STONE-ON-TONE

The standard logo, as well as product logotypes, may be recolored to create a tone-on-tone effect on giveaways.

The red tag logo is NEVER recolored, including for a tone-on-tone effect.

SMALL ITEMS When space is an issue, the horizontal logo is your best bet for legibility.

USING THE RED TAG LOGO

Don't forget that the red tag logo needs an edge.

This:

NOT this:

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

PRODUCT FOCUSED ITEMS

Whenever possible, the Adobe logo should be used in addition to product art. But don't let that limit your creativity. Unique items such as these coasters and magnets are fine without an Adobe logo.

If the outer packaging accommodates it, the Adobe logo could go there.

ETCHING AND EMBOSING

Etching and embossing the logo, logotypes, or icons is a great way to elegantly brand giveaway items.

Branded merchandise: Code or team names

CODE NAMES

It is not recommended that code names be placed on branded merchandise.

Code names are not cleared by legal, so should a conflict arise, any merchandise carrying the name would need to be scrapped. If an item is needed, follow these guidelines:

- Always use “Project” before your code name on the item (ie Project Radiate).
- Don't create your own imagery or logo.
- Email brand@adobe.com for a logotype (text treatment of the codename).
- If XD has created a beta-style icon for your project, it may be used.
- The Adobe logo may be used, but ensure there is adequate clear space between the logo and code name or that they are placed in separate areas on the item.

Not made by Butter Branding Company | provided via free source from Butter Branding Company

TEAM NAMES

- Don't create your own imagery or logo.
- Email brand@adobe.com for a logotype (text treatment of your team name).
- The Adobe logo may be used, but ensure there is adequate clear space between the logo and team name or that they are placed in separate areas on the item.

Trademark symbols

EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 2013

- You are no longer required to use ™ or ® (“circle R”) trademark symbols (or “bugs”) with Adobe trademarks, including product names and all logos (including the Adobe corporate logo).
- You are not required to use a ™ or ® trademark symbol with the trademarks of other companies, except where product-specific use is contractually required. Please refer to your product audit for this information or contact your legal representative.

This is a global change and is applicable in all Adobe and third-party communications including product UIs, adobe.com pages and other company websites, including localized sites, as well as collateral in all media.

Note: this change only needs to be made in new communications; there is no requirement to edit existing materials.

Protection of our trademarks remains a priority for the company.

- You must continue to use a standard trademark attribution statement (the fine print listing of trademarks and their respective owners, better known as “mouseprint”) for Adobe trademarks and for any trademarks of other companies where such notice is contractually required.
- You should use the standard disclaimer trademark attribution statement (“All other trademarks are the property of their respective owners.”) where appropriate.

See page 63 for details on writing the standard attribution statement.

The Adobe Trademark Database will continue to list the proper form of each trademark; please refer to it to identify which trademarks should be included in the attribution statement. Only those marked with a ™ or ® need to be included.

Powered by Adobe Sensei

is the ingredient brand to attribute Adobe Sensei in features across Adobe products enabling Adobe to collectively get credit for AI and ML capabilities in our products.

The Adobe Sensei Vision Council has a process to qualify new features and services as using Adobe Sensei. Features should not be publicized as using, or Powered by, Adobe Sensei until approved.

Visit the Adobe Sensei wiki for the process and qualifications.

Once approved, email Brand for the Powered by Adobe Sensei lockup.

New feature naming

New features should go through our standard naming process.

Submit a naming brief to get started.

Voice: Overview

Our editorial voice reflects our five brand personality tenets: It is simple, forward-thinking, and inspiring and seeks to foster an emotional connection with the Adobe community. Therefore, it must contain life and compel a reaction.

We expect a certain level of intelligence from our audience, avoiding lowest-common-denominator communication. Visuals and type should not compete, but support each other. We are direct and confident, bold yet not boastful. In display type, the voice should speak peer to peer and focus on real-world value rather than technical features.

We speak conversationally. We express a passion for technology but an understanding that innovation is nothing without customer benefit. We have a strong voice that understands customer needs, leads changes, and commands trust.

Here at Adobe, we want to maintain a strong and consistent personality. We shouldn't be a chameleon. We use one voice, no matter who we are speaking to. There is a level of informality and personality that shouldn't change, no matter the audience. Content changes; voice doesn't.

ARE YOU A COPY WRITER?

Please download our Tactical Guide for Writers (Asset ID 212406) that covers in detail the Adobe tone and voice.

The guide serves as a technical resource for writers and marketers who create copy for the Adobe brand. It's intended as a companion guide to our corporate guidelines, offering a deeper level of insight into the many copy situations we encounter day to day.

Voice: Examples

Even though Adobe is a corporation, our copy shouldn't sound corporate. Our voice avoids jargon and resonates with personality.

Adobe.com and editorial differentiation

As our primary marketing communications vehicle, the Adobe website plays an oversized role in differentiating the Adobe brand from its competitors. Follow these guidelines in writing copy and using the Adobe voice on Adobe.com.

WRITING CONTENT THAT DIFFERENTIATES ADOBE

Web content that differentiates the Adobe brand will appear primarily as headlines, product overview paragraphs, and to a lesser extent navigational elements such as buttons and calls to action. This is where the Adobe editorial voice is strongest and where we're most likely to spark an emotional connection with the brand.

Differentiation in content decreases relative to the depth (position) of the content on the site. For example, content on a product overview page, the uppermost page in the product area, should clearly differentiate Adobe from its competitors through the brand voice. Feature descriptions, on the other hand, appearing at the deepest levels of the site, are objective, factual, and concise, and contain very little of the brand voice. At this level, the feature set differentiates Adobe (specifically, the product); the text itself does not.

Headline punctuation

Periods: So small, yet so mighty.

We use periods in most of our headlines on Adobe.com and in emails to give them extra emphasis.

Where we don't use them:

Adobe.com page titles

Key benefit and feature description headings

Buttons and calls to action

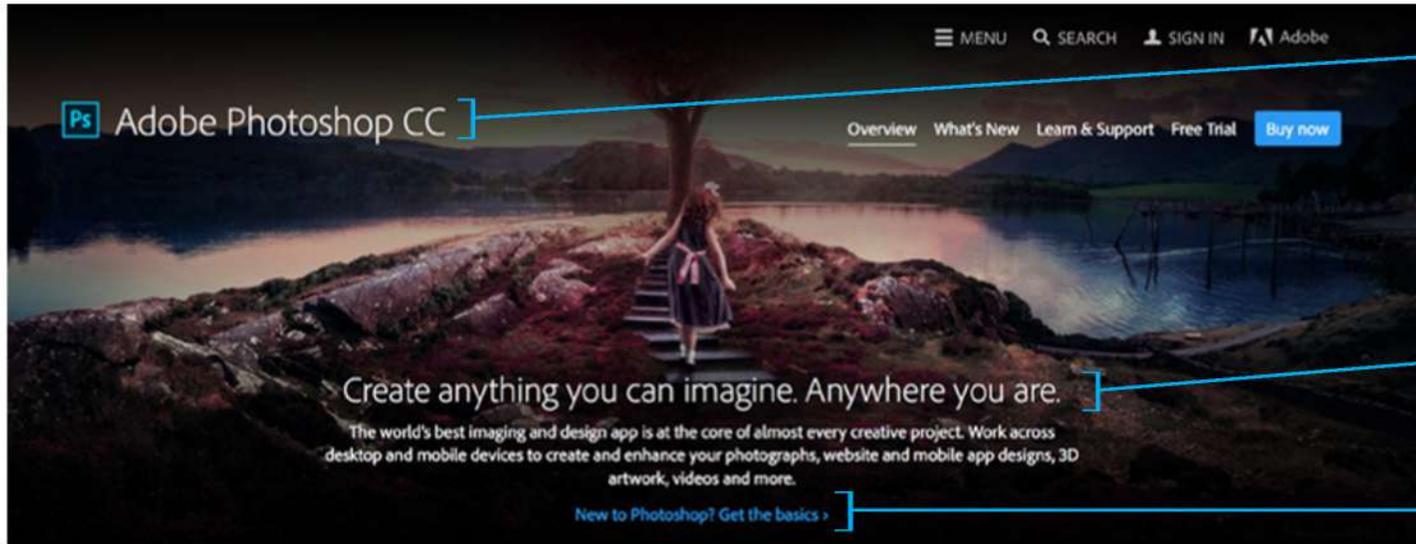

Subject lines in emails

See the following pages for examples.

Headline punctuation, continued

Adobe.com:Pagetitlesanddisplayheadings

The page title does not end in a period.

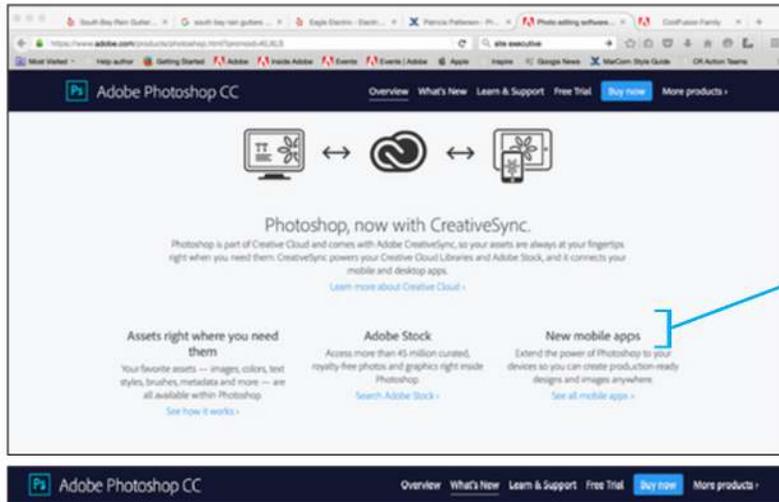

The display heading has a period.

The call to action does not end in a period.

Adobe.com:Keybenefitandfeaturedescriptionheadings

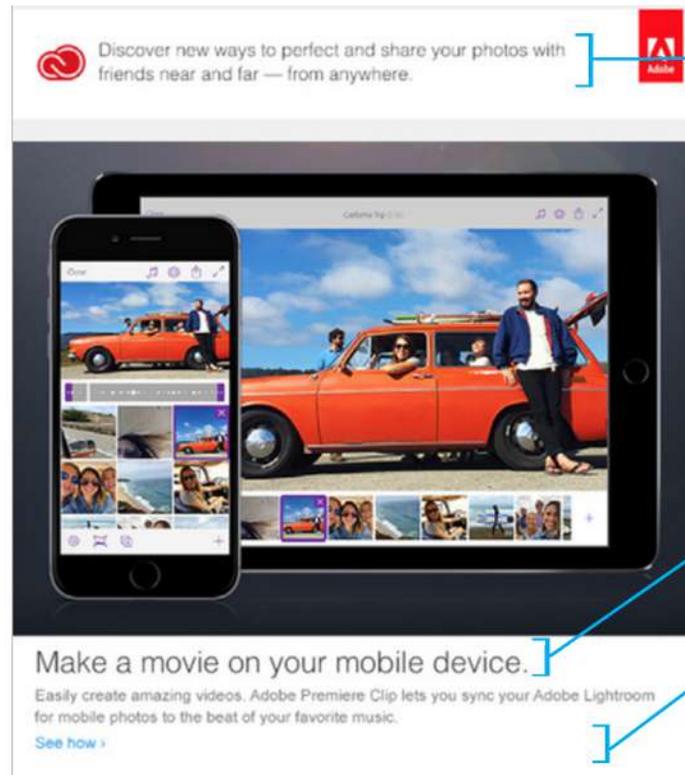

Headings on key benefit blurbs and feature descriptions are considered subheads and do not take periods.

Email&webbanners

The same principles apply to email:
Both headings on this email use periods.
The call to action does not.

Third-party banner headlines also use periods.
The call to action does not.
