The Work Ahead

These neighbors know first hand what we can accomplish when we work together. Whether it is cleaning up abandoned properties, getting street lights and roads repaired, or closing down drug houses, we truly can make a difference.

Every month, people come together at crime watches and community meetings to take back our neighborhoods. The work isn't easy and change takes time, but the results are worth it.

As I go door to door, one thing remains clear, we still have plenty of work ahead improving the quality of life and strengthening our neighborhoods.

I'm ready to work alongside you and anyone else, regardless of their political party, that wants to get things done for our community. Let's get to work!

Sincerely,

See the Solutions. NeighborsforJustinMoed.com
