

Directors' Challenge 2019-2020

Sep 2019 - "Ascending / Descending" Two images showing either movement or the perception / potential for movement, upward or downward or both!

Oct 2019 - "The Dead Poets Society" Two images based on the poetry of deceased poets. Images can be from the same poet/poem or from 2 different poems/poets. Include poet's name and poem title with each image.

Nov 2019 - "It's Just Wrong" - Two images showing a situation, person, object, etc, that is just plain wrong. Open to interpretation.

Jan 2020 - "It's a Mystery" Two abstract images that leave the viewer wondering what exactly is the subject. Try taking a small portion of a subject, try unusual angles, or alter it in post processing.

Feb 2020 - Triptychs - By definition a triptych is an image comprised of 3 panels showing a single scene/subject. Historically, the panels were hinged and usually found at an altar. For this assignment submit two images in which the subject is split into 3 sections. Sections can be of equal size or the centre being wider and the two side images being the same width.

Mar 2020 - "The Tragically Hip" a tribute to an iconic Canadian music group. Two images using their music as inspiration. Include the lyrics and/or song title with each image.

Special Assignment 2020 - "Famous Quotes" - Four images that illustrate quotes that we are likely to recognize, by someone deemed to be 'famous' or at least well-known. Use the text tool to place the quote and the author's name in the frame.
