Peaceful Ponderings...

Blessed Epiphany

For a few days, we are still in the Christmas season of the church year. So, let me begin by looking back. Thank you for a beautiful celebration of the birth of Jesus. The cantata on the third Sunday of Advent was inspirational - thank you to Kerry and the choir! My favorite thing about Christmas Eve worship - the beginning of the gospel of John, the light from candles spreading through the sanctuary, and Silent Night - moved me once again. My prayer is that we continue to carry the light of Christ into the world through our everyday lives.

And thank you for the Christmas gift! It was a complete surprise, and I'm honored by it.

We now enter the season of Epiphany, which begins officially on January 6, the day we celebrate the visit of the Magi to Jesus. The season runs until Ash Wednesday, February 18. We are celebrating the Feast of the Epiphany or Three Kings Day on January 4.

The Greek word, "epiphaneia" means "appearance" or "manifestation." Through the coming of the Magi to Jesus, God's glory is shown to the Gentiles. The light that came into the world with Jesus birth is the light that drew the Magi to Emmanuel, God incarnate, and continues to draw the world to love and grace.

During the season of Epiphany, we see ways God is revealed to the world through Christ: Jesus' baptism, the calling of his disciples and his early ministry. Light is a recurring theme.

As we celebrate the Day of Epiphany on January 4, we will learn about one Epiphany home- blessing tradition: chalking the door. Don't miss it!

In addition to beginning the season of Epiphany, we are beginning a new year. As you consider things you want to do (or not do) this year, perhaps think about adding one spiritual practice to your daily or weekly regimen. Perhaps beginning or ending the day with prayer? Perhaps a prayer each time you see or hear an ambulance? Perhaps a prayer for children each time you pass a school? Perhaps looking more intently at others - looking for Christ in them?

Blessings this Epiphany season, and this new year.

Peace,
Pastor Carol

Starting our 50th Year!

As of November 13, 2025, Peace Lutheran Church is entering its 50th year of ministry and mission in Burlington. Although we will officially celebrate the 50th anniversary in November 2026, the Council is beginning to make plans to celebrate different parts of our ministry and life together beginning as early as next June. Are you interested in being part of this planning? If so, please contact Marilyn Hart and/or Pastor Carol.

Peace Family and Friends Food Pantry - from Pastor Carol

In the midst of the government shutdown, while many people worried about paying bills or putting food on the table, some folks fortunate enough to not have to worry started asking “what can I do?” Kerry Bieneman came up with the idea of backpacks for homeless people as well as the idea of putting together gallon bags of necessities that can be given to people who stand on the streets asking for help.

Another idea has been raised as well. You may know someone - a friend, neighbor, or family member, or even yourself - who is struggling to make ends meet and whose cupboard could use a little help. One of our members, who wishes to remain anonymous, came up with the idea of a “Family and Friends Food Pantry.” This person has stocked shelves in my office with food items. If you know of someone who could use some extra food, please stop in my office and take what they might need. My office is always open. You are always welcome.

This congregation is great at supporting outreach ministries in the community. The hope is that this Peace Food Pantry might support folks and friends in the congregation. If it ends up that this is not a need, the food will be donated elsewhere.

OPPORTUNITY TO HELP

Rich Mueller could use some company once in a while, so Pam can get out and run errands. If you are able to spend an hour or two with him, please let Pam (262-492-4319) or Pastor Carol know. There is a sign up sheet in the back for interest in helping. Thank you for caring for one another!

CHURCH UN-DECORATING FOR CHRISTMAS

Following worship on Sunday, January 4 we will take down our Christmas decorations and enjoy some snacks together. Please try to stay and help. Many hands make light work!

Giving ...

Homeless bags were delivered to 3 police departments and to the library. All of them expressed gratefulness. Thanks to Kerry and all those who gave monetarily or of their talent.

Start bringing healthy snacks and travel personal items, i.e. shampoo, deodorant, feminine items. These will be delivered to Katcher cupboard on February 1st.

Looking ahead we will begin collecting in February for the Burlington Senior Center. They are in need of paper cups (no Styrofoam), small paper plates and napkins. These will be delivered March 1.

In 2025 Peace was extremely giving to those in need. I am looking forward to a successful 2026.
