The Holy Spirit will teach you everything.

Today's gospel reminds us of the works of the Holy Spirit. These include advocating, teaching, and reminding us of the things that we need to know. We on our part we must be ready to cooperate with the Holy Spirit. The holy Spirit will only advocate for us if we trust him and allow him to oversee our life. He will teach us if we remain attentive to his counsel. The Spirit will remind us of the things we ought to know if we are humble and willing to ask him to enlighten our mind. The Holy Spirit that we have received is not a spirit of fear and timidity. It is the Spirit that empowers us and makes us children of God, that can call God Abba Father. God gives us the Holy Spirit that we might bear fruit that will last and help empower others also. The Spirit is given to us to lead us into the kingdom of righteousness and peace and bring us to the fullest of life. As we rejoice at this wonderful gift that God has extended to us today, let us ask Him for the grace to be docile to Holy Spirit that we have received as we pray: Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you shall renew the face of the earth. AMEN.

God bless you all. Fr. Henry

Altar Server training

Altar server training started last Saturday, very disappointed that we have only 2 from the 6 names registered. Just a reminder to parents that when their children were baptised they promised to bring them up in the faith.

Over 50/60 Club – Saturday, 14th June at 1:30 PM

Thank you to everyone who signed up to help form a committee for our Over 50/60 Club. I'm currently in discussions with a company that may be able to support us financially. While I understand some people work during the week, we need to hold our first meeting soon to secure any available funding. I propose Saturday, 14th June at 1:30 PM in the hall—please mark your diaries as it's important we act quickly.

RCIA – Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

RCIA is the formal process by which adults are received into the Catholic Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist, while learning about the teachings of the Catholic faith. If you regularly attend church and wish to deepen your understanding or begin your journey into the Catholic Church, RCIA is a great place to start. We begin our Journey in Faith this June. If you're interested, please speak to Fr. Henry.
