

James Holler

Founder of My Compliance Library (MCL)

After seeing too many talented SMBs lose contracts or face fines not because they were negligent, but because they were overwhelmed, he built MCL's platform of AI-powered tools and fractional experts. He translates complex frameworks like HIPAA and GDPR into actionable, human-first strategies that teams can actually implement.

WHY BOOK JAMES?

- Relatable: He gets the panic of an audit request when you have no dedicated team.
- Practical: Attendees leave with a clear, immediate action plan.
- Hopeful: He shows how compliance can be a growth engine, not just a cost center
