

Minutes of meeting on November 15 at 2.30 at Lakshmi's house

Attendees: Lakshmi Garimella, Riwiti Roy, Charu Balachander, Anisha Singhal, Smita Carneiro, Uma Peta, Renu Bajaj, Puja Tawarmalani, Debjaya Misra.

Riwiti talked about a lady who needed help, and it was decided to help her by

- 1: Buying her groceries, and giving cash
- 2: Putting her in contact with Apna Ghar which can provide professional services. Anisha to do this.
- 3: Lakshmi to talk to YWCA about this.
4. Riwiti to talk to Sakhi contact

Renu will add data for 2014 to the removable hard drive and will then give it to Charu who needs to download data before she moves.

Need to get cloud based storage. Smita to research.

The money that was generated for ASHA at the 5K walk is to be given to them.

Riwiti to send Smita the link to the recording of the COI program so it can be posted on the web page.

Renu delivered the financial news. The revenue was $21,748 and the expenses are $16,095. There may be some slight changes to the figures as she does more work.

The fact that people entered COI without wristbands (no tickets) was discussed. The next time the gates should be better monitored.

Lakshmi has a list of people who volunteered at the event. She has sent a thank you note to them already. She will also send to St Toms pastor who helped put a blurb in the printed bulletin about COI.

(His address is fatherpatrick@boilercatholics.org)

At the holiday party (December 5th) the above list of people will be asked to stand and appreciated.

The party will be at BTCCGL at 3-5.

Elections: At the holiday party Riwiti will suggest increasing the board by 2 positions, one of whom will be the assistant treasurer.

Holiday party eats:

Charu to order chaat and samosas from Khana Khazana.

Smita to bring fruit

Rwitti to get cake from Mama Ines