

Please join me for a conversation

I find living and working in a remote world difficult.

I miss spontaneous conversations.

I miss human contact.

I miss the feel of others energy around me.

And I get lonely.

Human connection to me, is food for the soul and it's sadly lacking at present.

Nothing can replace face to face interactions so, we will just have to use what we have instead.

And to that end I've set up a number of zoom sessions called let's have a conversation, once a month on a Friday afternoon, from 4-5pm starting on Friday 26th February.

And the sessions are just that - no hidden agenda, networking or sales pitch. Just a group of individuals, coming together in the best way possible given our current circumstances, to create new relationships in a safe and open way.

I'd be delighted if you would like to join me - there is no charge, this is not a business venture just a human one.

With love
