

Silver Doge White Paper

What if a meme could be a place for a community to grow, develop, and entertain those within the community?

What if a meme was developed and promoted by its creator with transparency and a clear history and origin story?

Silver Doge aims to answer these questions by being a memecoin launched on pump.fun 12/16/25 for the purpose of entertainment, fun, and to build community.

There is no value to these tokens, nor is any token purchase, airdrop meant to benefit any holder. It is a meme token to collect for fun with no inherit value!

In collecting these tokens, we have the opportunity to connect with people all over the world, learn about each other, and grow as human beings, together.

There was no presale of this token. It was launched fairly on 12/16/25.

There are 1,000,000,000 $sildoge tokens. There will not be any more created on the solana network. The address of this memecoin is

BXpvYGdKc4nwFQxfeVJCpWpao9xeFWqW8rHgJv79pump

Be careful of copycats as others can try to hijack the meme, but this is the original, the real, and the wonderful silver doge address and the cornerstone of the community.

Goal:

The goal of this meme coin is to grow the user/collector base to 1 million wallets/people. There is no inherit value in these coins. Together we can collect, meme, and entertain each other! Together we can create one of the best, wonderful, fun meme communities in the world!

Inspiration:

Silver is wonderful element, full of interesting industrial and creative uses. The Doge is for the original Doge, doge coin, as the original meme on the blockchain technology. We honor these two wonderful things and bring them together in Silver Doge.

Remember these coins have no value and are meant to be collected for entertainment purposes only!
