

DBM Communications LLC

WHAT ARE WE?

DBM Communications LLC is a full service public relations, media relations, social media, marketing, communication company - also known as an Integrated Marketing Communication company.

WHAT'S IN THE NAME?

DBM stands for Donald Bruce McBride - Dr. McBride's much beloved father who passed away in 2011 from Systemic Sclerosis. He was always full of life, never ending support, and a lot of love.

WHERE ARE YOU LOCATED?

We're located in Venice, Florida - also known as the "Shark Tooth Capital of the World" - we've developed the shark tooth hunter's stoop - bending over sifting through sand looking for the prehistoric prizes.

WHAT SERVICES DO YOU OFFER?

See our list of services for an in-depth look, but we can tell you we offer a plethora of services in public relations, media relations (and training), social media, crisis communications, and so much more.

WHAT ARE YOUR FEES?

Fees and contracts are entirely dependent on the client. We tailor our services to meet a client's needs. We're all about what we can do for you, not what you can do for us!

WILL YOU WORK OUTSIDE OF VENICE?

Absolutely - we love to travel and although based in Venice, the borders of Florida don't box us in. Dr. McBride has traveled to all 50 states except 3 and Singapore, France, Great Britain, Ireland, Hong Kong, China, Canada, Mexico, Switzerland, and Italy.

ARE YOU ON SOCIAL MEDIA?

Find us on Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook with TikTok (and whatever else is developed) in the near future. Please interact with us as we would love to talk to you.

MEET THE UNOFFICIAL MASCOT

Meet Mochi, Dr. McBride's Maine Coon cat. His "job" is to keep birds away from the window. Mochi is the sole surviving member of his litter. He fetches balls, high-fives, watches TV (really!), chases 'monsters' (geckos), and loves 'candy' (treats). And yes, he knows all those words and then some!
