

Yale Class of 1981 40th Reunion

Bright College Years

Hello, Class of 1981!

In celebration of our upcoming virtual 40th class reunion, I'm inviting us all to sing together virtually!

The song is our alma mater, Bright College Years.

Here's the plan: each of us will record and video our own track; the attached instructional video will explain all — how to self-record and how to upload the file. We'll take care of the rest.

Attached also: a Google Drive link to your recording materials — the instructional video will explain this.

In this pandemic, I've had quite a bit of experience remote recording, and singing together virtually is actually great fun.

Our audio and video engineers are ready to receive our vocals and our videos and create a beautiful musical reunion finale to be debuted at our virtual reunion on the evening of June 5.

So, I hope you'll participate! If you do, you can look forward to seeing yourself in the final result.

Submission deadline is Friday, April 30th.

Here's to hearing and seeing everyone!

All best,

Jeff Klitz
