

Hello my artist friends!

How was your summer? Mine was delightful. Filled with many beach walks and fun times.

I hope this reaches you in good health and that you are ready to talk about painting classes again.

The classes in the Sanibel Community House will start again in January. I am so looking forward to seeing all of you again and I do have a surprise for you.

In my opinion you guys are artistically very advanced, so I thought I will try out a new format.

The classes will be 2x per month, every first and third Wednesday from 10AM to 12PM. I would like you to bring your own projects or ideas to the class and work on them. You can use all of my materials or bring your own. I will be there with advice, inspiration and hands-on help.

The reason I am doing 2 classes per month is so you will be able to keep your ideas fresh and stay in the painting groove.

You can go with your creative flow and join the classes when you feel like having a fun time with other artists, when you are stuck in your painting or when you need inspiration.

I hope this new idea excites you as much as it does me.

The classes in Captiva are every week on Thursdays 2PM to 4PM next to Doc Fords Restaurant.

Please call me if you want to join the Captiva classes at 239-888-6989 or email me at sissi@sissijanku.com

Please check out my website for more info www.sissijanku.com.

For the Sanibel classes please sign up with the Community House by calling 239-472-2155 or book it on their website www.sanibelcommunityhouse.net

As always all materials are provided and the fee is $60 per person.

See you soon, huge virtual hugs to you, Sissi
