
LETTERS | Opinion This piece expresses the views of its author(s), separate from those of this publication.

Bathroom bans aren't the answer you think: Letters

Alison Slow Loris, Bremerton

Published 2:06 p.m. PT Dec. 2, 2024

Regardless of how you feel or what you believe about transgender people, bathroom ban folks have not fully considered the ramifications of their rules.

More and more transgender women, and men, have had genital surgery.

Insist that people use the restrooms of the gender assigned to them at birth, and you are insisting that trans women with female genitals must use the mens' restroom. Maybe that makes you think "serves him right." Maybe it even titillates you. But realize that you are also insisting that trans men with a complete set of male organs must use the little girls room.

Is that really what you meant to accomplish, or was it just the urge to harass and punish, poorly thought through?

Alison Slow Loris, Bremerton