

WHAT IS A STUDENT NURSE?

Between the innocence of the entrance exam and the dignity of an R.N., there is a delightful creature called "The Student Nurse." They come in assorted sizes, weights and shapes but they all have the same creed; to enjoy every second of every day on and off duty, and to protest with griping (their only weapon) when their forty hours are over and the supervisors are in the cafeteria.

STUDENT NURSES are found everywhere - underneath or jumping through, swinging from and running over. Patients love them; R.N.'s hate them; interns ignore them; doctors tolerate them and everyone protects them.

A STUDENT NURSE is true with blood on her uniform, guilty, with bags under her eyes, wisdom with penicillin in her hair, and the future with a diamond on her finger.

To the doctors a STUDENT NURSE is an inconsiderate, questioning, an intruding jangle of noise. When you want her to make an impression, she becomes a sadistic giggling creature bent on wasting as much time as possible and sleeping through classes.

A STUDENT NURSE is a composite, - has the appetite of a horse, the digestion of an ulcer patient, the energy of an S.S. enema, the lungs of a switchboard operator, the imagination of a med student, the enthusiasm of central supply, the sharpness of a scalpel, the audacity of a nurse's aide and when she gives pills she has five thumbs on each hand.

She likes late hours, sleeping in on weekends, pizza, money from home, pierced ears, holidays, mail and men. She is NOT much for shift work, no pay, being in charge, sharp-eyed chemicals, cleaning shoes, hair nets, and alarm clocks.

Nobody is so early to rise and late to bed, nobody gets so much out of one pocket - a pair of scissors, safety pins, three pins, lipstick, comb, powder, cigarettes, kleenex, catheter clamp and the narcotic keys. Nobody can cram into one day - five enemas, twelve completes, three trips to the morgue, five trips to the nursing office, four trips to the pharmacy, rounds with doctors, fifty bedpans, put up a uniform, polish her shoes, stay out til 3 a.m. and still get along with her classmates.

A STUDENT NURSE is a magical creature, you can lock her out of your heart but you can't lock her out of your wardrobe. You can get her off your mind, but you can't get her off your expense account. She is a blurry-eyed, no account, boy-chasing, lovable bundle of noise. When she gets off duty with her aching back and tired feet, she drops into her bed and tells you good night with those famous last words, "Wake me up tomorrow."

But when she comes home on a day-off with only scattered pieces of her hopes and dreams, you can make them mighty insignificant with those five magic words - "When are you going back?"

IN EXTREMIS

A short story by Pharmacy Department
Complete and Unabridged.

J. A.. Richardson

J. R. Oliver

The Student Nurse was keen, she had all the eagerness and ambition of youth, but alas no experience!

The Hospital was full and understaffed and the Student was only too willing to take more than her full share of the load, but alas no experience!

On the Floor, all was not well, and conditions were slowly deteriorating into chaos. The Student was about to come into her own; her star was in the ascendancy, but alas no experience!

Meanwhile, Pharmacy was working under full pressure, with the quiet efficiency which is typical of that Department. The Lift doors were open, Pharmacy had met the challenge and were loading the 'Mechanical Life-Line' with Drugs. The urgent ring of the Lift Bell was incessant, Pharmacy swallowed the words before they were uttered.

Standing by the Lift, her finger on the button was the Student, thinking to herself that this vehicle would never break any speed limits . . . . . It Arrived. Handing the Drugs to the Head Nurse, she eagerly awaited the Pinnacle of her Ambition; Administering Medication . . . . .

The Head Nurse was a little agitated. The gentleman in Room 600 had not received his Medication, a suppository. They had arrived from Pharmacy, and here before her was an eager young Student, straining at the bit, but alas no experience!

The Head Nurse took the Suppository Container and thrust it into the outstretched hand. She spoke, "Can you handle this job?" The Student squared her shoulders "Yes" she said.

The Head Nurse was not convinced—she spoke agin, "Are you certain you can do it?" How could the Student prove her worth? Then quietly and confidently she answered, "I can do it." The Head Nurse was convinced. The Student left, her head held high. She carried the Suppository Container as a banner, showing the world that this was her finest hour, but alas no experience!

Sometime later, the Head Nurse, in the fullness of her experience, decided to visit the gentleman in Room 600. Her ambition was to place her hand on the Students shoulder and say "Well done", her highest tribute. She entered the room. Professional Etiquete prevented her from crying out, she swallowed a gasp—her whole life passed before her. Steadying herself, she looked again, there, sitting on his bed in a state of profound embarrassment was the gentleman in Room 600, a suppository sticking out of each EAR . . . . . alas no experience!

THE BEDPAN

While recovering from an illness
I was terribly annoyed
For the toilet was denied me
And a bedpan was employed.

I much prefer the thunder mug
But the nurse just shook her head
And said you're much too weak
To be getting out of bed.

My experience with a bedpan
To this day makes me quail
And I've just been prevailed upon
To tell this harrowing tale.

In the wee small hours of the morning
Before the break of day
Came a warning I could neither
Ignore nor yet delay.

The nurse brought in a bedpan
Slipped it under my backside
The chills run up and down my spine
As the cold thing touched my hide.

I tipped back on my shoulders
My lip grew still and numb
The odds were all in favour
That I'd die before 'twould come.

In this upside down position
The leverage wasn't there
But with a mighty effort
I passed a little air.

And then at last I got results
But then grew faint with dread
I wondered if I'd hit the pan
Or done it in the bed.

While my heart was weakly fluttering
I felt with cautious care
With a sigh of satisfaction
I discovered nothing there.

My troubles were not over
As I was soon to find
For I could not manoeuvre
To wipe the place behind.

The muscles on my face bulged out
As I stood upon my head
I made a few wild passes
Then fell weakly on the bed.

With patience I continued
Regardless of my pain
For modestly prevented me
From leaving any stain.

I had no more than finished
This Herculean feat
When I became aware of something
Sticky on the sheet.

Cold sweat was beaded on my brow
As I slowly raised the gown
And there upon the spotless sheet
Was a hideous spot of brown.

So the law of gravitation
Has proven sure as fate
You cannot stand upon your head
While you evacuate.

'Twas then I voiced a fervent prayer
As a soul in anguish can
For someone to improve upon
This so called modern pan.

There's a fortune for some genius
To invent some kind of pipe
Or a back adjusting thunder mug
With an automatic wipe.

The best place to look for a helping hand is at the end of your arm.

A TRIBUTE TO A NURSE

A vision there came in the twilight
Standing in the door ajar;
Never shall I forget that vision,
Although I may travel far.

She was so like an angel,
So silent and pearly white was she,
I know she was sent from Heaven
At that moment to comfort me.

So silently did she come there
And as quietly did she depart;
God bless, and deep, and comfort her
For her good and kindly heart.

Little doth she know
Her powers in helping along,
The poor sick and wounded bodies,
And helping them to be well and strong.

Some day she will rest in Heaven
For she is so kind and good and fine,
She has done so much good for others
That wonderful vision of mine.

So many kind acts, of which I could speak
But I'll not jot down, not here on this sheet
But not until the day doth God take her from this earth
Could she ever realize what her kindness has been worth.

"JUST WANNA ASK YOU NURSE"

There's something I wanna ask you nurse, something I'd like to know.
Are you really glad you're a nurse?
Answer me before you go.
There's so many things I've wondered about,
since I've been in bed,
Like why I can't get up and play
like my brother Ned?
I've wondered about you too, nurse,
ya didn't know I bet.
And some of the things I ain't figured out yet,
Just like I ask you, nurse,
is it sad to see someone die?
And how do you know what to say when the mom asks why?
There's so many others here,
that I just don't see,
How you manage a special smile for me.

How come you always wear your hat in here,
but leave it when you go?
My pa he woulda busted me,
if I'd worn mine inside ya know.
But most important I gotta ask,
do you always dress in white?
Please don't ever change that, nurse,
that colour seems just right.
You really do keep clean,
what with all the things you do,
My ma she'd sure be proud to have a kid like you.
And just let me ask you nurse,
Where do all these pills come from?
And how do you know
just when we're supposed to get some?
And how come ya don't bring them all at once?
Sure saves time you know.
Maybe then we'd have more time to talk at night before you go.

You always seem to know when I'm feeling my worst.
You know if I weren't a boy, I'd wanta be a nurse.
You must be in a hurry,
tho' you don't appear to be.
I'm really glad that you've spent this time with me.
I won't ask you any more questions, nurse,
I'm sorta tired tonight.
My tummy feels real funny,
and my head just don't feel right.
Just before you slip so quietly out,
and turn the lights down low
Would ya stay in here while I say my prayers tonight before you go?
And just let me ask you this nurse,
before I shut my eyes,
There ain't a reason in the world
why you should wanna cry.
Mamma keeps telling me I'll soon be well,
but I know it isn't true,
But don't worry, when I get to heaven,
I'll save a place for you!

South Waterloo Memorial - 1953
Obstetrical Dept.

It was September, 1953. South Waterloo Memorial Hospital had been open for one week and the wards were not yet in perfect order. Supplies were not always easily found, but on the whole things seemed to run fairly smoothly and we compensated where it was necessary. Miss Allen was Director of Nurses at the time.

Most of the Staff on Obstetrics were graduates from a variety of nursing schools in Ontario and every one was sure that she had had the very best training available. On staff were Jane Hammond and Marie Harvey (Smutniak), both from Hamilton General; Margaret Slidders (Fraser) from Stratford General; Margaret Hickey from St. Mary's, Kitchener; Isabel Knisley (Woods) and Ruth Hutchison (Wright) from Guelph General; Marian Barnett (Tutton) from Galt General; Lois Keachie and Gloria Waring (Leiska) from Kitchener-Waterloo Hospital and many, many more.

Mrs. Veronica Schrum was Supervisor of Obstetrics at that time and had had many years of experience so that her word was gospel, but I still think we gave her a hard time with our fresh, new ideas. She was a mistress of diplomacy, however, and seemed to solve our problems with relative ease. I can still visualize Mrs. Schrum when she would get a call that a delivery was imminent and she would hurry - all five feet of her stubby frame - down the hall to the case room.

At that time the case room was usually staffed on days by a grad and a student, and the supervisor had to be present at all deliveries to pour the anaesthetic and supervise the case.

I clearly recall one night when I was on duty, 3 to 11, in the nursery and the case room was busy. It was near graduation time in June and we were short of staff. At 11 p.m. Dolly Behling (MacMillan) came on duty to be told that she would be alone in the case room on 11 to 7 and she had not yet graduated. I think she learned a lot that night! Dolly later went on to become the Supervisor of the Delivery Room and held that position for many years to come.

At that time our ward ended at the elevators and lobby near the elevators and beyond that were doors leading out onto a balcony. Our little premature babies would be put out on the balcony for fresh air in their cribs for 15 to 20 minutes, no

Echoes of Grandside

"Grandside," our modern, well equipped residence, provides a very home-like atmosphere. Each student enjoys the privacy and comfort of a brightly decorated and modernly furnished room. Other conveniences provided include laundry facilities, a kitchen, library, recreation room and sitting room with radio, television and record player.

Gaiety and laughter can be heard ringing throughout the corridors in times of excitement and fun. At other times there is a hush of intense study over the whole residence as exams draw near.

The nearby golf course and the swimming pool next door provide ample opportunity for outdoor activities.

Grandside, we are sure will have a warm spot in the hearts of the girls who have made it their home for three of the most important years of their lives.

A TRIBUTE . . . . .

MANAGEMENT and STAFF
of
SOUTH WATERLOO MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Ministering To The Sick
 When you're sick and need some care,
 South Waterloo hospital will treat you fair.
 Ministering to your physical needs,
 Where the meals are real good feeds.
 Faithful doctors take their turn,
 Orderlies too, their wages earn.
 A diet of foods that are delicious,
 In fact, the choice of several dishes.
 Your comfort is well looked after,
 Helping to restore your laughter.
 Common phrases you will hear,
 Are you well-looked after Dear?
 Do you need some special care?
 That's the reason we are here.
 Darkness, night-time comes around
 Not a visitor to be found.
 For a voice has come their way,
 Visitors can no longer stay.
 Will you have an evening snack,
 As you lie upon your back?
 Now, can I rub your back tonight?
 It will help to set you right.
 Now for medicine or a pill,
 Helping a painless night to fill.
 Then the nurses say Good-Night.
 As they turn off every light.
 If you need us ring the bell,
 We are pledged to make you well.
 Silent prayers then are said,
 As the patient goes to bed.
 The Great Physician too is there,
 Listening to the bedside prayer.
 Gorgeous scenery has its place,
 As you look on outer space.
 So every day you're getting stronger,
 You'll not be in there very much longer.
 When your health has been restored,
 You will say you've not been bored.
 For the time you were confined.
 It has brightened up your mind.
 So, Good-Bye Nurses, Staff and all,
 As we leave the great long hall.
 Then a nurse escorts you to the door,
 Could you wish for any more?
 So Many thanks to you.
 Good old South Waterloo.

Lorne Johannes

SOLICITUDE

One Friday on Calvary, as in a hospital ward
 Three men lay dying—among them our Lord.
 'Twas the worse case of neglect that was ever recorded
 These patients whose pain Pilate had ordered
 On these hard beds in the shape of a Cross
 Without a pillow or blanket, no nurse would endorse.
 Now the One in the Center our attention should claim
 Jesus of Nazareth, the chart gave His name
 A cardiac condition, examiners find—
 Excessive love for the whole of mankind.
 Now you who are nurses, just listen to this Unsterilized nails pierced His Feet and His wrists
 And what about this for cruel medication?
 Vinegar and gall were His Lips levitation
 His Back men wounded by blows and welts
 Yet no soothing ointment relieved the hurts.
 No cold compress applied to His Eyes,
 The World's greatest lover just hangs there and dies.
 Not a grain of morphine, not a tourniquet set,
 As Mary's Son slowly bleeds to death.
 The chart then concluded, as further we see,
 "The sad Man from Nazareth died about three."
 His loved ones mournfully went their way—
 His Mother, Magdalene and John so they say.
 Now don't blame the Jews for this frightful neglect
 Our sins did do all; our sins do it yet.
 This treatment of Christ demands reparation
 It falls to you nurses of this generation
 Whenever you see anyone in pain
 Just make believe it is Calvary again
 And do for the patient what you wish they had done
 For the Man in the centre—The Innocent One.
 It will thrill His Angels, it will please Him too
 Just keep at it girls, till life's work is through
 And when after death your soul mounts on High
 God will "cap" you again, in His Name in the sky.
 And on Judgement Day when Heaven you will win
 Because nursing your patient—you really nursed Him.

TO ALL THE STUDENTS -

Although I have been here only a very short time, I already feel "a part" of your School of Nursing. It is your school, and we, the faculty hope that in some small way, we can guide you as you learn much about nursing, so that "you will be able to plan and provide basic individual and family-centered care and guidance within the hospital and the community", as it is stated in the school's philosophy.

I enjoy seeing an active student association, and yours is over-flowing with participation and enthusiasm. Everyone working together, is what makes our School a happy and enjoyable experience for all of us.

TO THE GRADUATES OF 1969 -

As you leave us, we trust that you will long remember your experience of the past three years. You are now at a beginning stage once again; many seeking employment, others travelling, a few may continue studies at University, and many will be wives and homemakers - in whatever you choose to do, we will be thinking of you and we wish you the very best for the future.

Yours sincerely,

(Mrs.) Mary A. Reimer, B.Sc. N. Acting Director,
School of Nursing.

BACK ROW: L. Stephenson, L. Brown, C. Brubacher, M. Poirier, J. Elliot, J. Maier, J. Martin, W. Cooper.

Dr. Deroche, Originator of the term "Classical Urine."

Us four and no more!

LYNNE MARGARET TAYLOR (ROBINS)
Galt, Ont.

Lynne who was originally from Brampton, has found happiness and a good future in Galt and at S.W.M.H. She will be working on paediatrics. She spent much of her time presiding at '68-'69 S.N.A. meetings, among other things. Working evenings on weekends wasn't her idea of a good time. "I don't know anything about it" is her favorite expression.

LAURA ELIZABETH WILBUR (BROWN)
Brantford, Ont.

Laurie was our only true Galtonian, but has found happiness in Brantford with Bill. She will be nursing at the Brantford General Hospital. Playboy jokes find distaste with Laurie. "It's second nature to me now" is her favorite expression.

SHEELAGH MARY WYLIE
Toronto, Ont.

Sam leaves us to nurse kiddies at Scarborough Centenary Hospital. She's not too pleased when alarm clocks go off at 5:45 A.M. She is often found saying "Who do they think they are." Sheelagh designed our yearbook Title page. Thanks for the hard work.

Class of 1969 Graduates

* BONNIE JILL (McCOY) (VUTANIC) COLE
Preston, Ont.

The 4B floor of S.W.M.H. will be happy to know that Bonnie will be joining them next year. Then she can choose her own uniforms instead of those "new uniforms equipped with underarm ventilation - it saves on Right Guard". If you are near Bonnie you'll probably hear her say "Did I say you could do that Wylie"?

Retired from CMH's Pediatric Department

GOLDINE ANN NOWAK
Kitchener, Ont.

Next year Goldie will be working in St. Joseph's Hospital in Hamilton. She will probably be found in the Intensive Care Unit saying Great! Fantastic! to everyone. Disorganization and Goldie just don't seem to mix.

BARBARA MARY PILKINGTON
Hespeler, Ont.

Barb is leaving S.W.M.H. to go to the U.S.A. where else? The distance between Hespeler and Morristown, New Jersey is getting Barb down. Barb is frequently heard saying "Don't be so petty".

BEVERLEY ANNE CONWAY
Huntsville, Ont.

The University of Guelph will be pleased to have Beverley on their enrollment list next year. This year, Bev has been keeping track of all our Yearbook money. Bev doesn't seem to like being cut off on long distance phone calls. She can often be found saying "Sure why not?"

WENDY SUSAN COOPER
Kitchener, Ont.

Wendy is another one who is coming to work here at S.W.M.H. She can be found on OBS. Being in charge on 3-11 just didn't agree with Wendy this year. Wendy seems to think that if Connie can go on the potty, she can go to school next September.

IRENE GAIL DAVISON
Guelph, Ont.

We can hear wedding bells for Gail this fall. She will then start working in the psychiatric unit at K-W Hospital in Kitchener. Gail can never seem to find her keys. "Hey, where's Martin"? is what you'll mostly hear coming from Gail.

Retired from Family & Child as Lactation Consultant

MARILYN ROSE (HAUSER) DeBrusk
Preston, Ont.

As our scholar, Marilyn will be working here at S.W.M.H. in the Intensive Care Unit. This year, Marilyn was head of the advertising committee for our Yearbook. "Rosie" is usually found saying "What's happened around here lately?" Don't you remember? You went swimming in 4A tub! A day never to forget!

Long time ER nurse!

*still working at cmH
on 3BNRS*

MARGARET JOAN ELLIOTT
Molesworth, Ont.

Joan likes it here at S.W.M.H. so much that she has decided to stay and work in the operating room. Somehow Joan doesn't like to stay at work any longer than possible when working evenings. Joan used to get depressed a lot, but not any longer, now that she has Roger.

JOY ELIZABETH MAIER (PRESTON)
Kitchener, Ont.

Next year will find Joy working on medicine at St. Mary's in Kitchener. A nurse who can't find anything to do doesn't interest Joy. "You know what I mean?"

Director of Nursing Service

Your friends in the nursing department have watched your progress during your educational programme with interest and affection and extend their best wishes to each of you. From eager, apprehensive and unsure junior students, you have become skilled and knowledgeable beginning nurse practitioners. As you pursue your careers, I hope you will influence the continuing progress so that your profession retains its vitality and integrity.

You will observe dramatic progress in the field of medicine, become hopeful at the strides in the treatment of mental illness and thrill at the emphasis on the promotion of community health. Regrettably you will also see progress along less desirable paths and I have confidence that you will face this with courage and wisdom.

N. Marossi,
Director of Nursing Service

Administrator

If we define progress as gradual betterment, and if we refer particularly to the gradual betterment of mankind, then we have made the major distinction that there is between progress and change.

Progress embodies change but is not synonymous with it. Progress has purpose and direction. Progress requires the best efforts of man. Progress will, I hope, involve you.

BARBARA JEAN BURDEN (nee MOORE)

This hilarious little lady is now a Mrs. thanks to a certain Prestonian. Barb's famous song "My Sister Kate," should go well with the patients here at S. W. M. H. where she will begin working.

CATHARINE ELIZABETH CHUTER

This year's winner of the Bedside Nursing Award will be able to show Owen Sound her great talents when she returns there to work. We won't easily forget Choot's many song and dance routines.

✱ CYNTHIA CULLEN (DOBRAŃSKI) LEVERIDGE

Cindy has seemed to live out of residence more than in residence the last three years. Let's hope she becomes more settled when she moves to Tillsonburg.

Now working at Public Health*

JANETTE MARION DAVIES
HAMILTON

Of Welsh descent, this five foot two Hamiltonian will remember her three years of training as "Sally", "Blanche", "Zip", "The Red Lion", "To be or not to be, perhaps 4B."

As a symbol of '71, she'll brighten the S. W. M. H. halls until brighter pastures call.

* HENDRIKA JANNY (deKRUIF) Timbrell
BRANCHTON

Even though Ricky will be leaving our school soon, she will still be close to her home in Branchton as she becomes a new member of the staff at S. W. M. H. Rumor also has it that some man has been taking up quite a bit of Ricky's spare time-maybe with some plans for the future.

Hailing from P.Q., this little French girl is returning to Ste. Agathe Des Monts Hospital. Very quiet and reserved, she sure will speak her mind about the lack of support for educational meetings.

MISS LINDA ANNE DUNFORD
DUNDAS, ONTARIO

This past year Linda has been kept busy as co-editor of the yearbook and trying to make it a success. Linda has another special interest in Galt. She will be married this fall and continue to work at S.W.M.H.

MRS. JANICE ROSANNE FORRISTAL (TURNER)
LONDON, ONTARIO

We hope our readers don't get the wrong impression and think Jan is non photogenic. As last year's "Miss Eskimo Daze", her pictures proved otherwise. Poor Jan, like the proverbial child of a shoemaker who goes shoeless, she, the wife of a professional photographer has no photo for graduation. Jan leaves Galt to join John, her husband of three months, in London, where she will nurse at the Psychiatric Hospital. Once more Jan, "The Class of '71" will keep in touch.

MRS. VICTORIA LYNN GODFREE (VOLL)
PRESTON, ONTARIO

Vicky set the trend and showed us how you could be a good student and wife too. She is a fun-loving and happy person and had been chosen as this year's valedictorian. Living in Preston has encouraged her to continue working in this area in the future.

MISS JUDITH ANNE HILL
WOODSTOCK, ONTARIO

Between the fears of beginning her nursing career and the tears of graduation, we find Judi diligently striving to make our yearbook a success. Without her witty comments and "clownin' around" combined with the occasional serious moments, things wouldn't have been the same. We wish you much happiness and prosperity in the future - Judi.

MISS JOYCE MARLENE (HOFFER) SEIP
ELMIRA, ONTARIO

Joyce was pretty active in yearbook, and she's staying at her alma mater - S.W.M.H. diligently working on 2A. Not only does Joyce plan on obtaining her R.N. in November, but she'll be walking down the aisle and gain her MRS. Her popular time of year is during the Maple Syrup Festival in Elmira. Congratulations on both your new titles - Joyce.

Longtime Surgery 4BN Nurse

MISS JANET LOUISE KING
DUNDAS, ONTARIO

Jan's destination upon graduating will be in Dundas at St. Joseph's Villa. As proctor of her senior class and secretary-treasurer of the yearbook, this girl from Dundas has set a good example to follow. Best of luck in the future.

MISS CAROLYNNE McMULLEN
GALT, ONTARIO

This year, at least for the first part of it you'll find Lynne working up in Coburg, presumably in the O.R. She would often be found reading her Rod McKuen books in the comforts of her room, or scanning the mailbox for letters from a certain Bob in Pennsylvania. She'll be obtaining her MRS. sometime in the near future. Good luck Lynne.

MISS PATRICIA EILEEN O'GRADY
HAMILTON, ONTARIO

Pat was president of S.N.A. this past year. She takes her many talents to Moose Factory, where she will warm her way into the hearts of all she looks after - she'll have to, it's going to be cold working for the Department of Health, taking care of the Indians.

MRS. GWENDOLYN BLANCHE PEDERSON
(WALLACE)
SHELBURNE, ONTARIO

Gwen came to us a sweet little country girl three years ago. Now she's an old married Prestonian.

It was Gwen's room where the third floor gathered during the first years of training. As Gwen tried to study - a party inevitably ensued. She'll never forget the nights she tried to sleep on her dresser - the only unoccupied space in her room.

Best of luck in the future and try to stay off the dresser Gwen!

* MISS BEVERLY ELAINE MICHNER
PRESTON, ONTARIO

Famous for her Dr. Denton P.J.'s you'll find Bev, if not on 4A working, down near the Respiratory Technology department with a certain H.W. So you see, Bev's interest in the hospital is not totally professional. Like a number of girls in our class, she is busy making plans for a walk down the aisle in June. Best of luck Bev.

Still at cmh in Recovery Room

MISS TRUDY JANE MITCHELL
GALT, ONTARIO

Trudy has had lots of experiences while here at S.W.M.H. If ever there was a happy-go-lucky girl it was Trudy. She joins the married set and the last we heard, they're going to raise "puppies".

MISS LINDA MARIE MCGEE
WOODSTOCK, ONTARIO

Linda is a hard-working, intelligent girl. Her talent at hair styling was the envy of every girl in the class. Now, Jim has taken Linda back to her hometown of Woodstock, where she will be employed full time as a nurse and housewife.

Valedictory Address
Graduation 1971
Mrs. Victoria Godfree

Mr. Chairman, Honoured Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen and Fellow Students. We, the class of 1971, wish to extend our personal welcome, and our gratitude in having you share this, our great day.

In our junior year of nursing, one of our songs was - "Only 3 years to graduation." In our intermediate year, you found us singing "It's only months" and now it's only seconds away. The years, months and days have left us with a knowledge of nursing skills and the principles behind them, but there is a lot to be said for the maturity which has also been attained. On one of the first days of nursing, our class chose as our theme song "Somewhere - There's a place for us." It is rather a sentimental song, as at the time we were feeling lonely and lost. We were lucky if we knew one of our classmates - most of us were total strangers.

However, our song later became something to work toward as we began to learn what place in life was ours.

The thrill of being on our own away from home soon faded. Where at home, we had our unique places, interests and sometimes the spotlight; we now lived with a different sort of family - a great number of girls our own age, all expecting the same recognition as individuals. This adjustment has been one of the greatest learning experiences of our lives. Whoever founded the nursing residence must have been a great psychologist, and the resulting skill of listening and learning just how our classmates feel, think and react, is one of the most necessary attributes of a good nurse. These principles we now can apply to our patients. It isn't just what we do, but how we do it that will make the difference. A smile, a gentle understanding word, and sometimes just listening, will be the helping hand our patients need.

There have been times when our class was exceptionally close, and for ten of us who were accidentally locked in a closet one night, it may have been too close!

There certainly has been no lack of excitement in residence. We supplemented our nursing skills by diagnosing common colds, and Friday morning gastro-enteritis. Rashes became measles, common headaches became migraines, and sore throats were immediately labelled strep throat.

We tried out the escape mechanisms learned in psychology by having pizza and folk singing parties before a big exam; and (with rationalization), curfews were no obstacle.

Our affiliations to the Hospital for Sick Children and to the Goderich Psychiatric Hospital were memorable experiences - both in terms of learning and enjoyment. There were noticeable changes in all of us upon our return - the most common being an increase in weight.

Life being a complicated matter, we have reached one goal, and yet we see many more before us. Our career lies ahead, and it remains our responsibility to make it successful or not. Medicine and Nursing are forever changing and we must not lose pace. We are on the plateau of a steep mountain and it is important that we keep moving toward the peak, by applying ourselves to the best of our ability.

To both the classes of '72. As your final year begins may we wish you all the success and happiness you well deserve. Thank you for your friendship, and making our Graduation Dance an occasion we'll never forget.

Many people here tonight deserve a great deal of credit for having helped us achieve our goal.

To the Board of Directors. May we extend our appreciation for providing the excellent clinical experience which has prepared us for our careers ahead.

We'd like to thank Mrs. Levy. You became our first permanent director in the school, bringing with you meaningful objectives and ideals - not to mention an American accent.

We'd also like to thank our instructors. Through you we have gained the knowledge; and more important, confidence. You showed genuine interest in us individually and are living examples of the ideal nurse.

To Mr. Robertson, our hospital administrator. You showed a genuine interest in our welfare, and spent valuable time giving many of us pep talks at coffee breaks after work. We thank you for this.

To Mrs. Marossi, the Director of Nursing Service; the nursing staff and the Doctors. You guided us in our clinical experience, encouraged us and taught by your example that team work is the most effective means of caring for patients.

To our mothers away from home - our residence house mothers - our sincere thanks for all your kindnesses.

To our husbands, husbands to be and male associates. Thank you for your interest and understanding which helped us attain our goal.

And now we'd like to especially honour two very important people - our parents. We're sure that you faced some doubts and fears when we left home three years ago to become nurses. Were you afraid that we would mature too soon or become too independent? Did you wonder if we would stay out too late and wouldn't keep up with our studies?

And most important, perhaps you wondered if we'd lose the ideals you worked so hard to instill in us.

Well, here we stand tonight, living proof that your self-sacrifice, your ideals and your caring paid off. Your ideals are leading each one of us to a life of service and caring for others just as you have cared for us.

Thanks Mom and Dad.
