

City of Kevil Monthly Meeting

August 2nd, 2024 @ 10:00 a.m.

Attendance: Mayor Charles Burnley, Commissioner Ronnie Rathman, Commissioner Bruce Romaine, Commissioner Tony Wiggins, Commissioner JoAnn Cooksey, City Manager Tim Myatt, and City Clerk Christy Bishop.

The City of Kevil met in regular session on August 2nd, 2024 @ 10:00 a.m. Minutes of the previous meeting were read, Commissioner Rathman made a motion to approve the minutes and Commissioner Wiggins seconded the motion, motion carried.

Minutes:

- Tim finished the letter for the new fire department and sent the package for the HB-1 grant.
- The county is putting medical cannabis on the ballot in November.
- The 2nd reading for the 4% increase on property tax was had a roll call was taken:
 - Commissioner Romaine -yes
 - Commissioner Rathman -yes
 - Commissioner Wiggins -yes
 - Commissioner Cooksey -yesMotion carried.
- Traves Holder came to discuss closing Memorial Drive in the Industrial Park for the distillery, motion was made by Commissioner Rathman, seconded by Commissioner Wiggins, motion carried. Motion was amended to include; the vote is conditional on the sale of the property for the distillery, motion made by Commissioner Rathman seconded by Commissioner Wiggins, motion carried
- Donald Chapman called city hall about moving a mobile home onto a property at 173 New Liberty Church Rd, according to ordinance #2019-3 section 5.5 Property owners must get permission from Kevil City Council. Kevil City Council gives permission as long as all restrictions, guidelines, and evidence of ownership are given to the city.
- New 4-way stop sign is to be put up at 1st and Nucholls.
- Stop sign at Charles and Summers needs to be fixed.
- Water backing up on Tammy Waldon's property in Whispering Oaks discussion was had and it was determined to not be a city issue, but a property issue.
- Deliberations are ongoing with the distillery about water and sewer usage.

Commissioner Rathman made a motion to adjourn Commissioner Wiggins seconded that motion, motion carried, meeting was adjourned.

