

Accessing our Starseed Superpower of being Alien by Zahara Celestial

As Starseeds the experience of being not belonging outcast is the KEY to our superpower. Because our resonance allows us to have access to wider perspectives which allows us to see the Divine purpose in all this humanbeing experience. When we allow ourselves to BE we are no longer are pulled into believing that there are only 2 choices, and each are in opposition. We do not have to fit in. And we then experience more and more that exists outside the limited 3D existence. And we do not have to live in a divided world of lack - Rich or Poor Black or White Democrat or Republican.

There is a 3rd way. And it is not denial escapism. It is not being overwhelmed by being an empath and taking on all the suffering. We do not have to choose a side. And this is Heart Intelligence which embraces some would call paradox.

As a Starseed we inherently have the innate remembering activated in our cells a vibrational resonance and energy that activates ways of being of living that is beyond the limitations of this divided human world. That can seem 'crazy' that is impossible to exist. For we hold the Superpower - Wisdom - of the 3rd Way. Some call New Earth.

Here are simple steps and reminders that I use to assist myself and others to access this Superpower and they do not come from the mind intelligence. They are not complex – for Wisdom and Knowledge of the Heart Intelligence does not need more more more information and convoluted ways.

- Embrace all our experience with compassion. We are not wrong we are not bad in having feelings emotions. Our difference diversity is powerful profound divine. It is the new way and we don't have to understand how or need to convince others.

- Just BE that is enough. Our very vibration 'just' by being here is realigning calling in healing for ourselves and others.

- Thoughts of criticism judgement blame are KEY to suffering keeping us in division and separation. Send LOVE to ourselves when we observe our thoughts feelings emotions that are in conflict.

- Use the BREATH to call in energetic space.

- Stand bare feet on the earth. Gaia is assisting us all in her our Ascension. She hold energies that will realign soothe calm bring us back into Peace and Harmony.

- Ask for help and expect the unexpected. All is in Divine Timing so we might ask for help and it comes that moment or ten years later. All is Quantum.

- We are Sovereign Beings with FREE WILL and Choice. So the more we acknowledge this the more we will empower activate abundance beauty peace health harmony love.

- All is true. We each are fractural parts of an expanding multi-verse. Each human being is cocreating an experience.
- Ascension is a natural process. We do not have to do anything. Awakening is the activation of becoming conscious of our FREE WILL coming into alignment with DIVINE WILL
- All is change.
- Our mind/ego is not at fault and needs patience time to adjust to new ways of being.
- Thank ourselves for daring to be here at this time.
- If having a challenging experience place one hand on the centre of your chest and send LOVE.
- All is energy. It is not possible for our mind/ego to hold all our Starseed remembering. As we energetically shift, we can energetically hold more of these resonances.
- All is energy and is movement. Even that which appears solid is moving. Our body is made up of more space. Nothing is static it is out natural way to allow experience to flow through our body.
- We are not isolated individuals. So our journey – including Awakening is connected to the Collective Journey. And it is a multi-communication exchange. We have Free will and choice. It is a conversation where we choose how to interact. We are cocreators. The more we awaken the more we access our gifts skills knowledge and wisdom.
- There is one overriding truth and that is LOVE.
