

ISAIAH 61:1, 3

THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD GOD IS UPON ME...

TO GIVE UNTO THEM BEAUTY FOR ASHES,

THE OIL OF JOY FOR MOURNING,

THE GARMENT OF PRAISE

FOR THE SPIRIT OF HEAVINESS;

that they might be called

TREES OF RIGHTEOUSNESS,

THE PLANTING OF THE LORD,

THAT HE MIGHT BE GLORIFIED.

O GOD, forasmuch as without thee we are not able to please thee, mercifully grant that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the same Spirit liveth and reigneth, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Contemporary

O GOD, because without you we are not able to please you, mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 50:4-9a

THE LORD GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

Refrain

I will walk in the presence of the LORD in the land of the living.

Psalm 116:1-8 from the Book of Common Prayer

- | | | | |
|---|--|---|---|
| 1 | I love the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, *
because he has inclined his ear to me whenever
I called upon him. | 5 | The LORD watches over the innocent; * I was brought very low, and he helped me. |
| 2 | The cords of death entangled me; the grip of the grave took hold of me; * I came to grief
and sorrow. | 6 | Turn again to your rest,
O my soul, * for the LORD has treated you
well. |
| 3 | Then I called upon the Name of the LORD: *
“O LORD, I pray you,
save my life.” | 7 | For you have rescued my life from death, * my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling. |
| 4 | Gracious is the LORD and righteous; * our God is full of compassion. | 8 | I will walk in the presence of the LORD *
in the land of the living. |

SECOND READING: James 3:1-12

NOT MANY OF YOU should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits. How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

GOSPEL: Mark 8:27-38

JESUS WENT ON with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” And they answered him, “John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.” He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered him, “You are the Messiah.” And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him. Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

NEWS FROM AROUND THE EPISCOPAL & ANGLICAN DIOCESES

In recent years, Montgomery has experienced a resurgence, driven by Civil Rights tourism and economic development. The Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd, Montgomery (est. 1900) has become a significant stop for Episcopal visitors, welcoming over 100 visitors in February 2024 alone. The Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd is the keeper of a profound Civil Rights Movement history. Equipping the Saints Capital Campaign will help cement the church's legacy. This project fortifies the broader church community, while safeguarding and sharing Good Shepherd's sacred space. (An excerpt from The Alabama Episcopalian 2nd quarter 2024, Vol. 109, No. 2) Please Pledge to equip the saints for the future of the Episcopal Church in Alabama. You can donate on-line at www.dioala.org or complete a donation form found in your June 2, 2024 publication of The Alabama Episcopalian.
