

Why Respite Care During the Holiday's?

As I am typing this the "Holiday Season" has begun for so many of us. It can all be overwhelming; we are here for you.

The holiday season is time for families to honor and celebrate their traditions while creating priceless new memories. However, this time of year comes with its own set of to-do items and pressures. As a result, what is meant to be a warm, comforting time of year can often turn into a hectic and stressful season.

Trying to plan gatherings and coordinate holiday parties, hosting family members from out of town, and making sure you get all of your holiday shopping done is a lot for anyone to tackle, let alone for family caregivers. This is why respite care can be such a beneficial option for family caregivers during the holiday season.

Whether it be Respite Care, High Fidelity Wrap Around, Community Connector Services, or any of the myriad of services we offer, we at PPRS are here for you, simply let us know how we can help.

Notes From the Admims

From Tiffany's Desk

It is November! I can not believe it!
We have been crazy busy in the office and have so many exciting things happening.
We have begun a few social media pushes, so far some fun things have been posted, but we will be moving more into education for the services we offer. Come follow us on our social media account and let me know if you have any ideas!

Happy November Everyone!

Last month we posted a CYM series of videos to the Staff Portal. There is a ton of useful information in this series, and we have answered many of the questions that come in regularly.

If you have a few moments take a look at them and let us know what you think!

Also if you have any further questions let us know!
