

March 10, 2020

Re: Letter of Reference for Fizza Shah

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

It is my pleasure to be a reference for Ms. Fizza Shah. I have known her for more than two years virtually, because of her interested in my area of expertise on existential positive psychology. She interviewed me last in one her video production on positive psychology. We have been in frequent communication with each other frequently through social media, email, and Skype. She has impressed me as a conscientious, resourceful and energetic person, who gets things done. She also has her gift to discover the need of the hour and the passion to contribute to its solution. At present, she plans to work with me to develop positive psychology interventions for the chronically disabled, such as individuals with spinal-core injury. We will carry out this collaboration as part of our joint venture and also as a part of the larger task force of existential positive psychology in www.meaning.ca, an international learned society.

I can recommend her for the job enthusiastically.

Yours sincerely,

Paul T. P. Wong, Ph.D.
Professor Emeritus, Trent University
President, International Network of Personal Meaning (www.meaning.ca)