ATR SELECT: Please refer to the AHA Handbook for leveling rules and additional requirements and information. COMP 719.

Academy classes (formerly Acts) - Academy classes are NOT AHA sanctioned or rated classes. They do not count towards AHA qualification points and will not be on your horse's show record. They require a separate entry form and have their own rules and regulations.. Contact Jill (801-979-5279 for questions and details.

NEW We have changed the clothing rules for Academy (Acts) classes. You can still use the old white shirt, black jeans uniform that we've used in previous years. But, we are going to allow 'typical' academy clothing/tack, * A neatly fitted shirt or top with riding pants, jodhpurs, breeches or jeans. (no chaps, no show coats, no 'bling', UAHC membership required, still pays $25 office fee per horse.$15 per class. Academy High point will be counted up just like rated high point/end of year awards. So, you do not HAVE to show pleasure/horsemanship, equitation, and showmanship classes to be considered for high point, but obviously, the more classes you show in, the more points you earn. See attached rules & entry form.

The Training Tack Classes are open to any breed horse. Show or training tack/clothing is allowed, but not required. Horses and riders can cross enter into regular classes. ALL horses are welcome, any breed, registered or unregistered, horse or rider does NOT have to be entered in the rated Arabian Show.  $15 per class + $25 office fee to be pre-entered please.

Class will be called (gates to be called are listed) and a line up conducted. Placing and ribbons will be awarded for amateur (ATR) and junior (JTR) classes. Approximately 2 minutes will be allowed between training classes for participants to change horses, if needed.
