The Story of Christian Symbols told by Taylorville UMC Stained Glass Windows Window Nine – The Ten Commandments

Inset of Ten Commandments Window

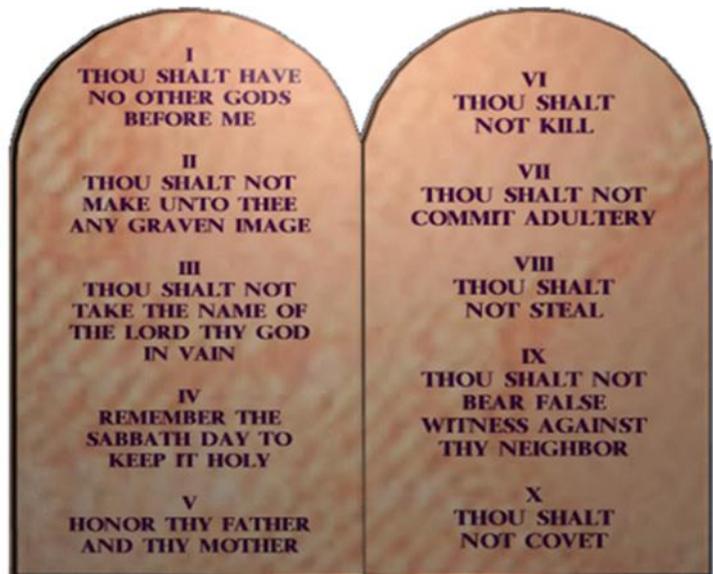

Each month as I debate which stained glass window to write about, I try to relate the window symbol to worship or activities at the church. As my selection of windows is getting smaller and smaller, the task is a bit harder. Yet, I know that God has a plan and saving The Ten Commandments window worked out perfectly for July because it goes so well with our Vacation Bible Camp theme, Wilderness Escape. The curriculum will review the high points of the Hebrew exodus from Egypt. One of the highest points is when Moses receives the personally written Ten Commandments tablets from God. There is no guess work involved in understanding the selection of the symbol of the Ten Commandments by our predecessors over 100 years ago.

INTERESTING FACT: There are two versions of the Ten Commandments in the Bible: Exodus 20: 2-17 and Deuteronomy 5: 6-21, Most Protestant denominations follow the order below. However, Catholics and Jews have their own unique numbering orders.

The Ten Commandments story is one of the first Biblical scriptures a child learns in Sunday school. How many of you had to memorize them before you were ten years old? Studying the Ten Commandments is the starting point of how God expects us to live-not only live, but to live a good life.

Moses receiving the Ten Commandments

So many times the images we see of Moses receiving the Ten Commandments look like the fiery furnace of hell. (I know, I know. It is described that way in the scriptures). Another frequently seen image is Moses coming down the mountain, seeing the pagan celebration and hurling the tablets at the sinners. I selected this image because I believe receiving the Ten Commandments is one of the holiest events in the Bible. God is speaking directly to the people, even though they could not see him, they certainly could hear him.

We know later in the Bible Jesus condensed the original Ten Commandments into two simple ones: Worship God with all your mind, soul, strength and heart, (I might not have that in the right order, but you know what I mean) and Love your neighbor (and your enemies) as yourself. Live a good life people. Pastor Patty

Next Church Council meeting is August 30 at 7:00 PM. Details will be emailed out to the council members.

True discipleship involves deep relationships.

Jesus didn't lead a weekly Bible study. He lived life with His disciples and taught through actions as well as words.

In July we make the transition from hope regarding earthly, physical needs to our hope for eternal salvation. Abraham is a double-sided example in this regard. On the one hand he is the preeminent example of faith but on the other he is an example of someone who tried to take personal control when doubts arose regarding lack of an heir. We follow Abraham's good example and avoid repeating his attempt to take control from God as we lift our eyes above earthly circumstances to focus on the power of the gospel, how we have peace with God, and the scope of salvation. We continue to meet in the social hall downstairs at 9 each Sunday morning. We welcome you to join us.

Disciple Fast Track Bible Study

I know that it feels like summer is just beginning, but because of the hectic pace of life these days it is necessary to do advance planning to keep our calendar up to date. Starting in late August or early September I will be teaching the Disciple Fast Track.

Disciple Fast Track, an adaptation of the original, bestselling Disciple Bible Study, provides a viable option for busy people seeking comprehensive engagement over time with the entire biblical text. Fast Track groups meet for a total of 24 weeks, devoting 12 weeks each to the Old Testament and the New Testament. Participants read a manageable 3-5 chapter of the Bible daily in preparation for the weekly meetings, which last approximately 75-90 minutes.

Each participant will be required to purchase two study manuals for an approximate cost of $26.00.

The class will be in person and not on ZOOM, unless current COVID-19 status changes.

As always there are scheduling issues with all of our calendars, so I am listing three options for your consideration, the start date will be dependent on the majority choice.

- o Tuesday 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
- o Wednesday 2:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.
- o Saturday 9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

After the time has been finalized, I will send out the class schedule, which will be divided into two sessions, we will take the month of December off. Please respond no later than July 19, 2021 if you are interested, which will give me about six weeks to order all the material for the class.

I hope many of you will be interested in this study, but know it is a commitment and a worthy one, as we together go deeper in the Holy Scriptures and our relationship with the Lord. --
Pastor Patty
