The Story of Christian Symbols told by Taylorsville UMC Stained Glass Windows Window Twelve and Thirteen – The Corkrans

These two windows are probably mostly overlooked when compared to the larger and more colorful ones in the sanctuary, but they still represent a symbol of Christianity. They represent the faithful believers' tithers, leaders of the church, those that loved this little white Methodist church so much they donated an entire window and finally, all those that gave pennies and nickels to assist not only the original placement of the stained-glass windows but the restoration completed in 1986.

THE REV. C. H. CORKRAN.

The above picture is all I could locate on Rev. Corkran, except for a small blurb in the "The Miracle Complete" booklet telling the story of the restoration.

"After the twelve windows in the Sanctuary and narthex were completed the two small windows over the back doors were restored and put into new wooden frames. These two windows were originally in the chancel and were given by Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Corkran. They were moved when the addition was completed in 1952." There is little known about the original placement of the windows, even the date. I wonder how they knew so much about these two small windows? He served TUMC from 1914-1916. Thank you so much Rev. Corkran, today we recognize you and all those responsible for our lovely windows.

Sermon Series

for October, 2021

We are well into Fall and only a couple more months before we start the new liturgical year. Therefore, we are taking a deep dive into the book of Job in October. It will help us understand how important our life of faith is when faced with difficult situations and times in our lives. What a name for the new worship series – “Born to Trouble”, that certainly describes the ups and downs of human life.

October 3rd: Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost – To and Fro on the Earth – Born to Trouble – Job 1:1,2:1-10 Special Sunday: World Communion

October 10th: Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost – Bitter Complaints – Born to Trouble – Job 23: 1-9, 16-17

October 17th: Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost – Out of the Whirlwind – Born to Trouble – Job 38: 1-7, 34,41 Special Sunday – Laity Sunday

October 24th: Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost – Now My Eye Sees – Born to Trouble – Job 42: 1-6, 10-17

October 31st: Twenty-Third Sunday after Pentecost – Not Far from the Kingdom – Ruth 1:1-18 Special Sunday: 5th Sunday Potluck following the service with Vision team meeting mixed in. (Oh – just in case you did not notice – Happy All Saints’ Eve a.k.a. - Halloween).

Adult Sunday School Class
9:00 a.m. in the Ed. Bldg. or on Zoom

The adult Sunday school is starting a study this October on the book: Ten Women of the Bible: One by One They Changed the World by Max Lucado. Available on Amazon (paperback or kindle). Please contact Steve Novick if you would like more information.

Adult Sunday School Class Two in Basement - Fellowship Hall ~ 9:00 a.m. Contact: Dee

The October portion of our Celebrating God study brings us to the Psalter, the great hymnal of God's Old Testament people. These Psalms can strengthen our prayer life and provide instruction for how to approach God in the face of injustice and sin. They also show us how to celebrate God's goodness and mercy. For thousands of years God's people have been writing poetry and songs for worship in that regard.

Many of us have a powerful tool for nurturing spirituality and devotion at our fingertips each week: our church hymnal or other Christian song book. Do you have one on hand? Resolve to make use of it in your private devotionals. The Psalms remind us that any believer can compose songs or poetry of worship; we do not have to leave these things to the "professionals". Our faith can be expressed in songs and poetry of our own.

We welcome you to join us on Sunday mornings at 9:00AM in the church social hall as we continue to study these lessons.

CHILDREN'S Sunday School

Did you know that pumpkins are fruit? They are classified as fruit because they develop from the flowering part of a pumpkin vine and they also contain seeds.

The Children's Sunday school class will be spending time this fall learning about the fruit of the Spirit.

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law." Galatians 5: 22-23.

Contact Maria Novick to volunteer or if you have questions about Sunday School for children.

Important Potluck/Vision Meeting October 31, 2021

After the Oct. 31st worship service, we will be having our first 5th Sunday Potluck in over a year. I love the food and fellowship of a potluck, but there is a method to my scheduling the potluck and that is to piggy-back a Vision meeting at the same time. A Vision meeting is important for the entire congregation and your attendance is needed, so we hear the combined voice of all. Additional details and a questionnaire will be distributed after the CCOF (Congregational Care, Outreach and Fellowship) meeting on October 6th. Please save the date for this important meeting in planning where you see TUMC over the next few years.

Bazaar Update:

Some things are still questionable concerning the bazaar. We will have carryout, but it will not be a drive thru. There have been some recent dinners in the area and people have been served inside. Sue Maring and Sandy Wright are currently collecting donations to defray the cost of the oysters. We are planning to sell crafts, regifting items, baked goods, and Rudolph's Fleas, etc. You can keep posted by reading the Tidbits for updates or special emails.

If you can help the day of the bazaar, let me know and I will assign you a time and spot.
