My Second Month

God does work in mysterious ways. How can it be that I only just finished my second month with you all, when I feel like I have been here longer and by the way that is a compliment, not a complaint. I feel at home here. The wheels are turning as far as productivity with church business and worship is concerned.

I have learned most of your names and what you do at the church. I have had my first set of meetings with Church Council, SPRC, Finance, Lay Leadership and Mission teams. Doing the business of the church is a wonderful feeling and has made me more knowledgeable about the stewardship process and how you all watch over everything.

I have begun the process of organizing and cleaning the parsonage in preparation for re-entry, which is being seriously discussed during September. We need to discern how to proceed in a careful and compliant way to protect the health of all of us. The missions have been rolling right along with collections for not only Mt. Airy Net , but also Shepherd's Staff.

All of the above is good and needs to be accomplished to make the church run better, but the area that has been the most enjoyable is the Parking Lot services. If we did not meet out in that parking lot on Sundays, oh, what a difference that would be making in the transition to this position. The gatherings and discussions before and after church are fulfilling in reducing the feelings of isolation we have been going through, but it is the worship itself that truly fills me up and hopefully you too. Praising and worshipping our Lord is what being a body of Christ is all about.

So as a heads-up, I am not going to keep giving you a month by month inventory of what is happening in my new role as you pastor, because I think we have passed the mark of "newness", now we are one. My articles going forward will be a bit more spiritual, but I will keep it a surprise and will let your feedback tell me if I am on the right track.

Let us continue to move forward towards normalcy—it will happen!

Pastor Patty

Bazaar News

To have it or not.....that has been the question!

The Council addressed this at their July meeting. There were too many questions and unknown answers at that time. Should we have it or not. What are the regulations required by the Health Department due to COVID-19. It had come down to having a carryout dinner and having a yard sale outside. Still, not that simple! It would be people ordering from their cars and driving around the church to have someone from church carrying out the dinner to the car. But when we stopped to think how many people it would take to process the dinner and pack it, etc. How many people would be needed and how many would be allowed by the Health Department. Oops...that's a problem! Then do we have enough items for a yard sale instead of a Re-gifting Shop? Could we make enough profit to make it worth all the work?? We usually cleared $9K to $10K AND, what about the weather?

So, on the evening of August 24, the Council gathered outside the church to finally decide what we were going to do. After a month of thought, prayer and gaining knowledge of the situation, we decided after discussing all different options, that we would not have our usual Bazaar and Oyster Dinner this year. Instead, we will visit ideas and options for a possible Bazaar and/or Dinner in the Spring. Maybe by that time, restrictions on food preparation, people visiting and gathering at the Taylorsville United Methodist Church will be more relaxed. And maybe, just maybe, Covid-19 will be a word of the past.

We will keep you posted 😊

The Women's Thursday Morning Bible

Study will resume !!!

Thursday September 10, 2020 ~ 9:00 a.m.

After our normal Summer Break and the not so normal Pandemic interruption, we are ready to fellowship and study together - outside, with masks in the Education building backyard. If the weather is not good, we'll cross that bridge when we come to it. Maybe God will shine down on us the way he has for our Sunday Outdoor Worship services.

As a take-off from all the concentration on the Personal Protection Equipment needed to fight the COVID-19, we will be studying the SPIRITUAL PPE we need in our daily life with Christ. Ephesians 6:13-17

The "New Normal" Picnic

I have to say, I had a really good time at the church "tailgate" picnic. Who would have thought that sitting at the back of your car in camp a chair 6' apart would be so relaxing and entertaining. The kids got such a kick out of the simple pleasure of sitting on balloons and blowing bubbles. I know we were all smiling along with them. I even smiled through all the teasing about my driving!

God does provide, if we are given lemons, He makes us lemonade. Thank you all for coming and joining in the great fellowship. We just might have to try this again in the Fall with hotdogs and s'mores. Please enjoy the pictures.

Blessing to you all – Pastor Patty.
