November 2019

Remembering What Once Was

There is something about November that makes me nostalgic. Maybe it's because the month starts with All Saints day – we literally start by naming and remembering the folk who have died in the past year. We honor their goodness and celebrate all the wonderful ways that they touched our lives.

But there is more to it than that. It's all the sights and smells, the textures and tastes. Scientists tell us that scent is the most powerful way to elicit a memory, so it's no wonder that walking through a store or sitting down to dinner with fresh baked pumpkin pie or fresh roasted turkey brings back memories of Thanksgivings from years ago spent with family and friends around large tables stuffing our bellies with grandma's cooking.

Memories and nostalgia are good. In fact, psychologists have done studies which show that reliving pleasant memories helps boost our mood and reduce stress, helps spark inspiration and creativity, helps us feel connected socially and even makes us more optimistic about the future.

However, we must always be careful to not get stuck in nostalgia. We can't live our lives by looking in the rearview mirror. We need to take some of that optimism and creativity and use it to build a bright future for ourselves and those we care about.

Much like the exiles in Babylon - the ones Jeremiah spent so much time sharing God's prophecies with, the ones God allowed to be knocked down in order that they might be built back up and formed into a new, stronger people - we too will face difficult challenges and must be willing to face trials and tribulations with courage and optimism, so that we can also come out stronger and ready to claim our rightful place as followers of Christ in this community.

So this November, light a candle, eat some pie, and pray for those whom are no longer with us. But don't stop there. Pray also for those who God has in mind to join us in the future, and ask God to show you how to invite them to be part of our community here at Taylorsville UMC. Maybe invite them to the Bazaar, or invite them to join you at Bible Study or some other activity.

As Christians, even when we remember Christ's sacrifice, we look forward to the coming Kingdom. Always remember that – looking back is fine as long as you also have one eye on the future and feet ready to take you there.

Be blessed,

Rev. Julie

Permanent Endowment Fund Update

Since its inception more than six years ago, the Permanent Endowment Fund has provided the Missions Committee with financial assistance equaling $12,500! Because we only use the Fund's earnings when providing this assistance, the Fund is continuing to grow to ensure that we can support TUMC's missions programs and special project activities in the years to come. If you would like to consider making a donation to this Fund, or would like additional information about the Fund, please contact the Church Office. Brochures describing both the Fund and the ways in which to make a Legacy Gift are available at the back of the church.

Advent Wreath Making

Advent is the period of four Sundays/weeks before Christmas. We Christians use this time to prepare and remember the real meaning of Christmas.

The Advent wreath is shaped in a perfect circle to symbolize the eternity of God. Set on the branches of the wreath are four candles: three purple and one pink. In the center of the wreath sits a white candle. As a whole, these candles represent the coming of the light of Christ into the world. During each Sunday of the Advent season, we light another candle and focus on the four virtues Jesus brings us: Hope, Love, Joy and Peace. The Christ candle (center white candle) is lit on Christmas Eve reminding us that Jesus is the light of the world. The wreath continually reminds us to keep Christ at the center of Christmas.

Come join us for the annual Advent Wreath Making and coffee, juice and donuts

Sunday, November 24, 2019 in between the 9:00 & 11:00 am services.

Everyone is welcome!!

Bring your Advent plate and candle holder (if you have one from prior years)...We will have extras if you don't have one. All other supplies and candles will be on hand. Contact Lisa Martin if you have questions.

The J.O.Y. luncheon for November will be held on Wednesday, November 20th at 12 Noon. Our speaker for November will be Deborah Rhoades, Registered Dietitian Nutritionist, with the University of Maryland Extension service in Frederick County. Debbie will offer tips to help us make healthy eating choices. Some of the information she will share includes ways to decrease sodium intake without sacrificing taste and how to use Nutrition Facts food labels to make better choices.

Bazaar time is here! NOVEMBER THE 9th is next week! So keep your crafts going and pull out those recipes for the Bake Table! Please donate a baked good. It takes the entire Congregation to have a successful bazaar. Our numbers are small and but many hands make lighter work. Please call me or sign up on the lists in the back of the church! We need help in set up, Rudolph's room, parking cars, crafts, kitchen, re-gifting shop, patting oysters, baked goods, washing dishes, and help with clean up everywhere when the bazaar is over.

1. Check the back of the church for sign-up sheets to help the day of the bazaar. We need everyone to sign up. I will have a job for you even if it's just an hour, or if you need a sit down job.
2. Re-gifting items (Christmas gifts and Christmas items only) are needed by Sunday, November 3. Also, that same day after the 11AM service, volunteers are needed to help move furniture around and set up tables in the Education Building. On Monday, we will start setting everything out on the tables.
3. Same as last year, we will have Rudolf's Fleas in the first portable. This will be some of the left-over items from the Yard Sale that may be purchased for a donation only. . . .no prices. The room will be all set up and I will need volunteers to cover the portable for an hour shift at a time to accept donations. This is a perfect sit down job.
4. Thursday evening before the bazaar we will need men to help carry tables/wood to the sanctuary to set up the tables. Time will be announced.
5. Kitchen donations of oil, saltine crackers, etc. should be at the church (downstairs kitchen) by Sunday, November 3. Monetary donations should be given to Sandy Wright, Susan Maring or Jean Knill. Just a note about the oystersthey cost approximately $65 a gallon, we need 15 gallons, there are 3 patties per platter. That's a lot of oysters! Patters are also needed the day of the bazaar. See Jean or Vivian Overholtzer. So if you are not a crafter or baker consider donating a can or 1/2 a can of oysters. See Jean Knill.
6. Baked goods should be at the church no later than 8:30 AM the day of the bazaar Please note on items if they are sugar-free, contain nuts, etc. There will be time on Friday to drop off also!

Contact church office for more information.

Adult Sunday School

Class at 9:50am—Social Hall

We can't sustain faithfulness toward God on our own. The Old Testament witnesses to cycles of God's people violating the terms of the covenant, God's imposing judgment, people's repentance, and restoration. The prophets longed for the day when God would equip his people with a new heart that would allow them to sustain a steadfast relationship with their God. In November we focus on four New Testament accounts that show this prophecy coming to pass. Christ-like character was being formed in his people. Paul tells the people to examine themselves to see whether this transformation was actually occurring. Meanwhile, Paul's colleague Peter taught his congregations that a faithful relationship with God required holy living and goodness. May we be encouraged that our faithful God chooses to enter into a relationship with us that makes us more like him.

Join us in the social hall at 9:50 each Sunday.

The Thursday morning group has reached 2 Corinthians chapter 9 in their study of Paul's missionary travels. He is commending the generosity of the Corinthians in giving to the church of Jerusalem and defending his teachings in light of the many false prophets in the world and in the sufferings he has been through.

You are invited to join us as we "Remember What Really Matters".
