President's Message

How I Became a Happy DNC Member

About 4 years ago I was on the Nextdoor website, reading about my neighbors' frustration with their neighbors and the fact that no-one had a solution for the poor coyotes, when I saw a post from a woman who said that she was having trouble meeting people here. I said to noone in particular, “you and me both.” The next post, however, was from someone in Desert Newcomers Club, (possibly Susan Katz). In that post was a brief description of the Club’s mission and activities available and there was an interest form to fill out, which I did! Very shortly thereafter I got a call from Lynn Dunlap. She told me about her annual bridge walk happening the next day, with lunch to follow (I swooned). She asked if I would like to go and I said, “Heck, yeah!, Can we go now?” She said “No, it’s tomorrow, I’ll pick you up.” She did, and Ladies, I had the best time. I met genuine, friendly women who were interested in meeting the same. I was so impressed that a club like this existed, especially when I learned that just one woman started it 30 year previous. When I returned home that afternoon, after learning there really was a bridge in southern Nevada, my husband asked, “Well, how was it?” I told him, “I think I found my peeps.”

There is always an opportunity for you to participate.
Get involved; volunteer!

What makes Desert Newcomers Club successful are the many tasks performed by members behind the scenes. Chairwomen volunteer to take on the above positions. All volunteer members who assume one or more of the above positions are invited to the annual December Appreciation Luncheon.

Seen and Heard

Happy Hour
Hotties

We are saddened to report the passing of Marilyn Mohr in December 2025.

Marilyn was our Luncheon VP for 2024. While struggling with her illness, Marilyn continued to volunteer. She helped sell raffle tickets at the meetings until it became too difficult.

She enjoyed playing mahjong and loved hearing her favorite song "Sweet Caroline" at the luncheons. She will be missed. A memorial was planned in Phoenix where her family lives.

NEW ASIAN MAHJONG GROUP!

A new group is starting for intermediate mahjong players. They will meet the 2nd Monday of the month beginning February 9th at 11:30 a.m.
