

LAMBERHURST GOLF CLUB—10th JULY 2025

The Society fielded 72 members to compete for The Wilderness Salvagers in a 4BBB competition held at Lamberhurst Golf Club under excellent weather conditions. The favourable climate contributed positively to the overall performance of the participants.

The event was keenly contested, with the top four positions determined by countback.

Vice Captain Gary Snell and Chris Thomas (St Augustine GC) emerged as winners, scoring 44 points with 23 on the back nine.

Runners-up were Fred Still (EWGC) and Mike Muro (Mid Kent), who also scored 44 points, securing 21 points on the back nine.

Winners: VC Gary Snell & Chris Thoms (St Augustines)

Runners up: Fred Still (EWGC) & Mike Muro (Mid Kent)

Third and fourth places were separated by the score on the final six holes, with Jeff Barnes (EWGC) and Bob Harris (Dartford) taking third place by a margin of one point, finishing with 44 points—21 on the back nine and 16 on the last six holes.

Alan Cooper and Past President Harry Wanless (Bexleyheath) narrowly missed out, recording 44 points—21 on the back nine and 15 on the back six.

Prior to the two-course meal, the Captain of Lamberhurst GC, Shaun Challis, extended a warm welcome to all guests, expressing his hope that everyone had enjoyed their day, which is consistently the case at Lamberhurst.

Despite the ongoing hot weather, the course was maintained in good condition with challenging greens. The bar and catering staff provided service of the high standard expected by all attendees.
