Director's report:

Updates from last month's meeting:

- We are slowly getting foundational components developed and established – these include starting monthly meetings for Gallery Artists as well as Open Studio Members, weekly/bi-weekly grant review meetings with Peggy Iberg (grant volunteer who is helping us get our grant matrix updated & organized) and beginning to schedule classes.

Programs:

- SUIMA classes will begin on November 5th with a new instructor, Alex Oelschlaeger, joining the teaching team.
- A homeschool group from Arboles is scheduled on October 24 for a Colonial Pottery Workshop.
- The Beginning Wheel Throwing class has 4 students enrolled. Feedback from the first session has been very positive.
- Several community members have signed up or requested information about one-on-one pottery lessons.
- Open Studio has a new member (Sherri from Chaco's Pottery) with students from the Beginning Wheel Class also joining in
