At Eagle Elite we offer several different Team Programs, it is important to understand that different team programs come with different levels of commitment required, and different financial obligations.

-Elite Cheer Teams: Our Most Competitive Teams. 2 practices a week required. Multiple Elite Skills required. Teams will go to Florida for an end of the year competition if a Bid is received.

-Prep Cheer Teams: Competitive Teams. 1 practice a week required. Less expensive than our Elite Program. Some skill requirements.

-Novice Cheer Teams: Will go to Competitions. 1 practice a week required. Less expensive than our Prep Program. Minimal skill requirements.

-Showcase Cheer Teams: Non-Travel Team. 1 practice a week. Least Expensive Program. No skill requirements. Not a full year team.

Are you willing/ wanting to commit to a Competitive Team? (Novice, Prep or Elite)

YES or NO we would like to be Showcase/Rec

Are you willing/ wanting to commit to an ELITE Competitive Team?

(please read and understand the time and practice commitment and financial obligations this means)

YES or NO we would like to be Prep or Novice

We will not promise what team type your child will make and will ultimately make the best decision for the teams. Parents/athletes do not pick their team or team type. The above questions are just to let us know what you are willing to commit to. Many other factors go into team placements and those decisions are made by the coaches.

Returning athlete's past attendance records along with athlete's attitude and effort levels during past season practices. Returning athletes must be in good standing with the gym, and cannot be carrying an overdue balance.

Are you trying out for our Open Team Golden Eagles?

This team is primarily a college team and is non-tumbling*

Yes wanting to Cross to this team

Yes I am only trying out for this team

Please note that our open team will require upper level stunting will be a bid eligible team-if they receive a bid we do plan on taking this team to Florida.
AND

If you circled “YES” you are willing to commit to an Elite Team on the previous page:

-Would you like to be considered to cross to a second cheer team? _____

If YES and your athlete is chosen to be placed on a second team you will be expected to commit to both teams for the entire season.

(Please do not say you would like to cross unless you are truly ready to commit to two teams.)

-Elite Cheer teams are bid eligible teams. If our Elite Cheer Teams receive a bid to an end of year Florida competition they will go. Please initial here that you understand that if your child is placed on an Elite Team and receives a bid, that team will compete in Florida, and your athletes will be expected to go. _____

If you do not want your child placed on an Elite Bid Eligible Team please indicate that on the previous page.

-Elite Cheer teams are our most competitive program. A certain level of commitment is required for Elite program families. Please make sure you are familiar with the Elite Team policies and requirements that are explained in the Season 13 Handbook/Contract.

-Excessive unexcused absences will not be tolerated.
