November 2025 News Making a Difference For Kids

President Cathy Elliott

Dear Ladies,
November — the months are falling as fast as the leaves!

Our Optimists have been working fast and furious, pouring energy and compassion into seven different programs and events this month. Together, we helped five Head Start families enjoy a Happy Thanksgiving (and beyond) with generous food baskets. We've kept children warm through our coat project, celebrated creativity through the Art Contest, and continued our fundraising traditions with Nut Sales, Holy Moly cleaning cloths, a beautiful Quilt Raffle, and support for Shop with a Cop. And somehow... we still found time "To talk health, happiness, and prosperity to every person you meet" — reminding us that optimism isn't just a belief, it's a conversation. A gift we offer through every greeting, every act of service, every moment when we choose positivity over impatience or indifference.

Even in a month of activity and accomplishment, we also felt the heaviness of loss. Two of our precious members transitioned from our club to the eternal chapter of service. Their absence is deeply felt. Yet the example of their lives calls us forward. They lived with faith. They served with hope. They loved with intention. And we honor them best by carrying those same qualities into our own days.

As we close out November, may we continue to uplift others, strengthen our community, and live each day in faith, hope, and love — just as they did.

Yours in Optimism,
Cathy Elliott
President, Twin City Area Optimist Club

In Memoriam Cindy Cherry

On November 10, 2025, the Twin City Area Optimist Club lost a long-time member and dear friend, Cindy Cherry. Cindy joined the relatively new Twin City Area Optimist Club in 1993 and embraced its mission of optimism and service with her whole heart. Her radiant optimism and generous spirit were perfect examples of what it meant to be an Optimist.

For 32 years, Cindy faithfully lived out the purpose of our organization—bringing out the best in children, in her community, and in herself. Her service with the club included acting as club treasurer twice, in 2007-2008 and 2009-2010, and as club president in 2016-2017. During her time as an Optimist, she sponsored eight new members, including two who are still active today.

Cindy's giving nature was well known. When the Twin City Optimist Club launched its community sponsorship program in 2018, Cynthia R. Cherry, CPA, LLC became the first Gold Sponsor. In 2014, Cindy offered the use of her office's basement as storage for the Coats for Kids project, disregarding the potential impact of increased traffic and noise to her business.

Visiting with Cindy was always a joy. She loved to talk about her family, her dogs, and her love for travel. She was a fan of Elvis and Johnny Cash, whose pictures were included with the many family pictures displayed in her office. Cindy showed interest in others' families and thoughtfully remembered the details they shared. She lifted others with words of encouragement and offered quiet reassurance when a listening ear was needed.

More than her actions, it was Cindy's spirit that embodied what it means to be an Optimist. She showed her faith in God, her love for her family and friends, and her belief in the good that shines within each of us. She loved being an Optimist. Cindy didn't just recite the Optimist Creed—she lived it.

Family Empowerment Program

Marian Bozak introduced our guest speaker Wendy Wulf from the Family Empowerment Center, a community-based program run by the St. Louis Crisis Nursery. The Family Empowerment Center provides support to help families move from crisis into stability. One of the main goals of the program is to prevent child abuse by helping in these family situations.

In addition to immediate crisis intervention, the program includes home visitations, case management, counseling, parenting support, and parenting education at no charge. The services are designed to meet the specific needs of each family with an emphasis on family safety and stability. The program may also help families with utility payments or needed supplies such as food, toiletries, cleaning supplies and even Christmas toys. The Twin City Area Optimist Club also has provided coats through the Coats for Kids program on request.

Family Empowerment services are available in Jefferson County through Mercy Hospital. Families are referred through a variety of paths including a 24-hour help line, (314) 768-3201.

Kim Richardson, Parents as Teachers

Announcements

Members were reminded to keep the family of Cindy Cherry, Marsha Greenstreet, and Pam Cernik in thought and prayer.

Two new members were inducted today.

- Janice Surdyke, sponsored by Laura Elbl
- Nancy McAnany, sponsored by Laura English with Jean Naeger standing in for Laura Welcome ladies!

Becky Francis is giving the gift of life to her brother Bruce! After intensive testing, Becky was found to be a match to donate a kidney to Bruce. Becky will travel to the Mayo Clinic for the procedure scheduled for December 8. Please keep Becky, Bruce, caregivers, doctors and nurses in thought and prayer. Best wishes to Becky and Bruce for successful surgeries!

Parents as Teachers (PAT)

Our guest speaker today was Kim Richardson from Parents as Teachers. This program services children from birth up to 5 years old to increase school readiness. It was initially developed in Missouri in 1981 by a kindergarten teacher as a pilot project. It is now mandatory in all Missouri school districts, and is implemented across the United States and in several other countries.

Parents as Teachers develops curricula that support a parent's role in promoting school readiness and healthy development of children. Learning experiences are customized for the individual needs of each family and child.

PAT offers home visits from prenatal to kindergarten. The visits help educate parents and connect families to community resources and other families. The parent educator is able to observe the parent-child interactions in the familiar environment of their own home and provide information on child development. These visits also provide early detection of developmental or health issues, and prevent child abuse and neglect.

Parents as Teachers is a universal access program. Families do not have to be low income or have children with special needs.

The Twin City Area Optimist Club supports Parents as Teachers by providing PAT Boxes that are distributed to families in need. The supplies provided in the boxes help parents continue working with their children at home.

Kim mentioned several times the impact of screen time on child development and explained that post-covid, many young children displayed autism symptoms while not diagnosed as being fully autistic. This is known as digital or virtual autism. This is a topic Kim is very passionate about and many members expressed interest in having her return to speak specifically about this issue.

New member Michele Horrell, sponsored by Ellen Bridgewater was inducted today. Welcome Michele!

After a delicious holiday lunch, Marian Bozak introduced a game to identify Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade balloons. Forty pictures were distributed among the tables and members had to move around to view the pictures and record their guesses. While nobody got all 40 correct, a number of people scored over 30 and received prizes. This competition got everyone moving after a big lunch and involved a lot of head scratching. Some of the balloons pictured originally debuted as far back as the 1930's such as Felix the Cat. Others were very current, including an Anime character that made many of us wish we had our kids or grandkids with us to help out! Thanks go to Marian for another fun activity!

TCA OPTIMISTS IN THE WILD

Optimists Support Chef Leroy

Twin City Area Optimist Club members turned out to support Chef Leroy Brown by dining at Taytro's on November 15. The restaurant held a benefit to help Leroy after a recent stroke left him unable to work. Leroy is a great friend to our club, preparing our weekly lunches and accommodating special requests. Our members have been happy to offer support with donations through our club and Taytro's. We all wish Leroy a full and speedy recovery and can't wait until he's back with the TCA Optimists.

Kirstie Zych enjoyed a night out with her hubby.

Carolyn McKinney, Debbie Hogenmiller, and Amy Baum ran into each other.

Carroll Metzger and Kathy Jensen waited at the bar for a table.

CLUB FUNDRAISERS

Shake, Rattle, and Roll: Bunco Bash!

Twin City Area Optimist Club members and friends gathered at H.W. Herrell Distributing Co. in Imperial on November 20 for their final Bunco night of 2025. Attendees brought a variety of tasty dishes to snack on throughout the evening. Many game rounds passed quickly with the players at the first table hitting Buncos early on, ending the round.

After the third game, wins, losses, and Buncos were tallied. There was a tie for the most wins requiring a roll-off won by Diana Stueve with Lynne Wendel taking second. Third prize went to Christine Bradshaw; the winner of most Buncos was Linda Portell. Finally, the prize for most losses was awarded to Rosie O'Shaughnessy. The 50/50 raffle was drawn before the end of the evening with Carroll Metzger taking home 50% of the total pot!

Congratulations to all winners, and a big thank you to Carol Schanz for hosting this fun-filled evening!

GRANT UPDATE

Twin City Area Optimist Club President Cathy Elliott and Grant Chair Jean Naeger accepted a check for $2000 from the Optimist Club of St. Louis. This represents two $1000 grants for specific club projects. One is for the annual dictionary project which provides dictionaries to Jefferson County third grade students; the other is for the bike safety program which provides free bike helmets to area youth. Thank you to the Optimist Club of St. Louis for their generosity in support of these two important projects.

CLUB PROJECTS

Head Start Baskets

This year's Thanksgiving Head Start Food Basket Project was a tremendous success thanks to the generous contributions from the members of the Twin City Area Optimist Club. Our members worked together to collect a wide variety of non-perishable goods during our scheduled noon meetings from October 30 – November 20. A number of Optimists gathered at Schnucks on November 24 to shop for missing and perishable food items to complete the baskets. The final baskets were distributed to Head Start personnel on November 25.

Our Optimists worked together during the collection period ensuring that every basket was thoughtfully prepared. The teamwork and dedication displayed during the preparation, shopping and distribution phases of the project, truly embodied the spirit of giving to make a meaningful impact on five local Head Start families. Among these households, there were a total of five adults and fourteen children ranging in age from six months to fourteen years.

Through our club's collective efforts, we were able to make a meaningful difference for these Head Start families during the holiday season.

The Twin City Area Optimist Club Art Contest was held on Sunday, November 23 at Elks Lodge 1721 in Festus. This is an annual event of the club and a favorite of many members. This year the contest was funded by a $1000 matching Childhood Health and Wellness grant from the Optimist International Foundation.

The students and their art were represented by the following schools in Southern Jefferson County: Crystal City High School, Danby Rush Tower Middle School, De Soto High School, De Soto Middle School, Festus High School, Grandview High School, Herculaneum High School, Hillsboro High School, Hillsboro Jr High School, Jefferson V-II High School, Senn Thomas Middle School, St. Pius X High School, and Twin City Christian Academy. There were also some entries from homeschooled students. Entries were showcased in art categories, photography, three-dimensional art and graphic/digital art.

Optimist members spent Friday morning before the contest at the Crystal City Library sorting and labeling all of the entries. Sunday morning a large crew of Optimists and some helpful young men showed up bright and early to set up tables and display artwork. Judges had time before the contest officially opened at 2:00 p.m. to view the artwork and make their winning decisions. After which, students, parents, teachers, and the general public had a chance to view the 383 entries submitted by 267 talented student artists.

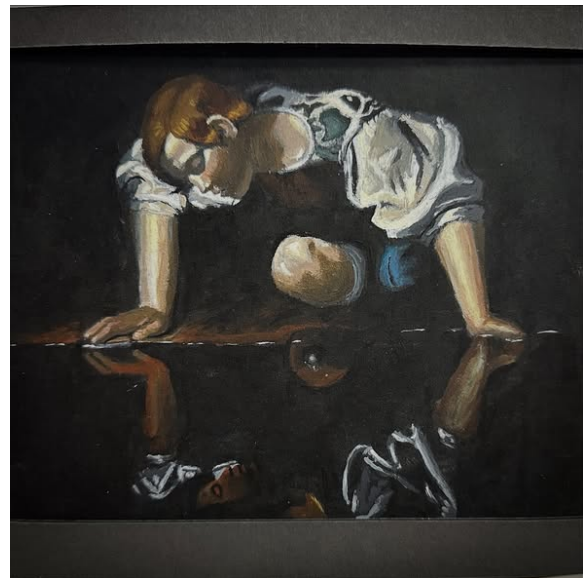

The Best of Show winner was Cassidy Hoehne, Hillsboro High School, with her entry "Caravaggio's Narcissus Artist Study". First place winners in three art categories were: Art-Ages 12-13 Hannah Fast, De Soto Middle School, with her entry "The Burning City", Art-Ages 14-15 Chloe Armbruster, Danby-Rush Middle School, with her entry "Ophidian", and Art-Ages 16-19 Rosalie Tedford, Festus High School, with her entry "Ballerina". Taking first place in photography was Ryot Schmidt, De Soto High School, with his entry "Dull Eyes". Three-dimensional art first place winners were Emma Rowden and Faith Smith, Herculaneum High School, with their joint entry "Band Together". Graphic design/Digital art first place winner was Ryan McFarland, De Soto Middle School, with his entry "Billy Eillish".

It takes many people to put on this art contest! Thank you to Amy Baum for volunteering to chair this year's event. Thanks also to Peggy Scott for acting as Emcee, and to Phyllis Neff for dealing with an uncooperative sound system. And thank you to all of the volunteers who helped to make this a successful event including St. Pius X High School student helpers Mason and Owen, and Zac Casey, Marian Bozak's grandson from Festus. Danita Miller's son Colt was also on hand to help out. Finally, we want to thank all of the student artists who entered their art as well as their art teachers who instructed them and families who supported them.

Congratulations to all of the artists and winners!

Planning Session
November 5, 2025

The Board members of The Foundation of the Twin City Optimist Club met on November 5 for a three-hour strategic planning session. As the Foundation is about to begin its third year, we felt it was timely to take a pause and evaluate our progress and plans. The group began with reviewing accomplishments and confirming the Foundation mission statement which is to increase resources, raise funds and improve the lives of the youth of the community in support of the Twin City Area Optimist Club.

We reviewed our strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats (SWOT) and then moved on to setting goals for the next few years. These goals included: Clarifying areas of financials such as the source and category of funds received and dispersed; and reporting quarterly to the Club and members. We will develop policies to insure the implementation and consistency of these goals.

Other strategies for the future were discussed namely: more effective communications with the Club's Board of Directors and Members, the development of joint committees and the review of Foundation policies with the Club Board. The size and replacement of the board members was also considered and will be developed further during the coming year. The Foundation Board is positive about continuing to grow, to open up new possibilities for supporting the Club's projects and programs, and being a part of the Optimist Community.

The Foundation Board members are: Carroll Metzger, Pat Parsons, Gerty O'Leary, Ellen Bridgewater, Mary Kay Scott and Judy Williams. You are invited to address any questions about the Foundation to any of the Board Members.
