

SAT, JUNE 6TH
11 AM - 3 PM
585 S. Little Pole Road, Heber info@libertysanctuary.org

ALL WELCOME
FREE ICE CREAM BARS
BRING THE FAMILY!
LibertySanctuary.org

ADOPTION EVENT

Trainer, Searra Brandt, Text 435-395-8232

ASHER is a 2022 bay gelding who was rescued from a Texas auction. Now, he has a solid Liberty foundation and a promising future. He is currently in professional training and in the process of being trained for the saddle, having a few rides so far. Asher is a naturally more of a shy horse and will do best with a confident, consistent handler who gives clear direction and asks direct questions. Asher has a lengthy running bred or English bred build and loves to bond with new people who do not make him feel less than. Asher loves baths and Alfalfa pellets are the only treat he accepts. With guidance, he continues to make steady progress. He stands politely for the farrier and veterinarian, loads and hauls in a trailer, and is accustomed to routine handling. Asher is well maintained and fully up to date on teeth floating, hoof care, vaccinations, and deworming. This young gelding is an excellent prospect for someone looking to continue his training and develop him in the discipline of their choice. Sound, healthy, and started correctly, Asher is ready to move forward with the right program. $2500

AXEL is one of the horse leaders on property and was rescued from a Texas kill pen in 2023. Axel is a 2010 bay half-draft gelding with a cool, calm, and confident demeanor. He has been a much-loved presence around the barn and carries himself like a true workhorse with a gentle, steady mind. Axel enjoys a calm connection to match his demeanor, loves to be groomed, appreciates a good afternoon nap, and is best suited for light work rather than demanding or strenuous riding. He has an old injury to his left hind leg that can cause some stiffness or soreness following long or hard work sessions. With appropriate management and a sensible workload, Axel remains comfortable and willing. This big, powerful gelding is well trained and capable of walking, trotting, loping, backing, disengaging his hips, and pivoting his shoulders. Once trust and partnership are established, Axel can be ridden both under saddle and bareback. He is dependable and honest, especially with a rider who values a calm, unhurried approach. Axel stands quietly for the farrier and veterinarian and is easy to handle for routine care. He is fully up to date on vaccinations, deworming, and has had his teeth floated. Axel would be an excellent match for someone seeking a steady, kind, light-use riding horse or a dependable companion who values partnership over performance. Axel is a biblical name that means The Father is Peace. He looks over the herd and is a gentle but sure leader. $4500

DOTTIE is a 2023 Wind River Reservation rescue and sorrel filly with the cutest interrupted stripe on her face—earning her the perfect name. She is a sweet, people-oriented young mare who will meet you at the gate and happily soak up attention. With consistent, patient handling, she continues to make steady progress and shows a willingness to learn. Dottie knows loads of ground work lunges at the walk, trot, and lope on and off line, disengages her hips, shoulders, flexes her head both directions easily. Dottie aims to please she is on the smaller side waiting another year to start her under saddle but she has worn the saddle with no care and done a little line driving. Dottie thrives on interaction but is still learning how to be comfortable standing still and being alone, so she will benefit from continued guidance and reassurance. Dottie stands tied for the veterinarian and the farrier. Dottie is currently up to date on her medical, vaccinations and deworming along with hoof care. $2500

JASPER is a 2023 sorrel gelding rescued in 2023 with his Mom, Gemma. He has a standout blonde mane and tail that perfectly matches his fun-loving personality. This sweet young horse will meet you at the gate every time, eager for attention and interaction. Nicknamed the "little surfer dude," Jasper is playful, expressive, and full of life. He enjoys showing off his gaits and playing in the paddock with other horses, bringing energy and entertainment wherever he goes. Along with his personality, he is also a smart and willing youngster who wants to please. Jasper already has a solid start on the ground. He disengages his hips and shoulders, backs willingly, and lunges at a walk, trot, and lope on and off line. Jasper is a short reigning built type horse waiting another year or so to start him for how small he is but Jasper has worn a saddle and takes it willingly will be an easy colt to start for anyone. He is currently working on flexion and softening at higher gaits, showing good progress and a trainable mind. Jasper does stand for the veterinarian and the farrier he is currently up to date on all of his medical vaccinations, dewormer, and foot care. $2500

Kaia is a 2024 grade strawberry roan mare rescued from the Navajo Nation in New Mexico in 2024. She has an exceptionally sweet personality and is quick to meet you at the gate and enjoys human interaction. She has a solid start on the ground and moves willingly off the lead, backs, pivots, and disengages her hips, lunges at the walk, trot, lope, stops on command and does this on and off the line. Kaia has had a couple rides under saddle has been an easy going filly and fun to start would make a wonderful project for someone. With her striking blue eye Kaia turns heads this mare will finish around 16 hands once done growing. Kaia stands quietly for both the farrier and veterinarian and is well maintained. Kaia is currently in a half set of shoes and did wonderful for her first shoeing. She is fully up to date on teeth floating, vaccinations, and deworming. Our beautiful blue eyed Navajo Princess was named Kaia meaning pure, life and the sea recalling the blue depth of her eyes. The Navajo word Kai connotes protection and healing. $3000

NIKEATA is a 2020 dark buckskin mustang mare with a big personality packed into a small frame. Standing no taller than approximately 13 hands, she is full of sass, confidence, and character. This little mare is expressive and bold, especially when interacting with her herd. Nikeata does form connections with people, though in the early stages as she searches for trust, boundaries, and guidance. She enjoys running the paddock and happily chases the bigger mares, showing her playful and assertive nature. Nikeata is learning in halter with being handled; she lunges at the walk, trot, and lope on the line, Nikeata backs, disengages her hips and shoulders. Currently working on handling her feet for the farrier but she does stand for the vet and is currently up to date on her medical, vaccinations, and dewormer. The name Nikeata is Native American meaning "wild rose". To Native Americans in many western tribes, wild roses were a symbol of life. It also represents survival and vitality. $2000

ROWAN is a cute, 2022 grade sorrel pony gelding with a big personality he is more go than woah packed into a small frame. He is spunky, curious, and full of character, making him a fun and engaging young horse for the right person. Rowan has a mind of his own and a playful nature that keeps things interesting. He stands to be caught, though he can be a bit challenging at times, and stands well for both the farrier and veterinarian. Rowan is well cared for and fully up to date on vaccinations, deworming, and has had his teeth floated this year. On the ground, Rowan moves nicely off the lead, backs, pivots, and disengages his hips. Rowan is saddle broke but Green broke he walks, trots, lopes, and backs. Rowan has gone on three trail rides and keeps a quiet mind. He enjoys desensitization work and will happily interact with tarps, flags, and other tools when encouraged, showing confidence and curiosity. Due to his size and stage of training, Rowan will need a smaller, confident handler if intended for riding. He would make an excellent prospect for an upcoming training project or a fun learning horse for someone looking to bring along a young pony with personality. $4000

SIERRA & SUNDANCE. Sierra is a 2020 wild burro jenny with a truly unique coat color. She is a shy, thoughtful young burro who is very particular about her personal space and likes to be aware of who is approaching her. Once Sierra builds trust and becomes comfortable with you, she transforms into a friendly companion who will meet you at the gate for scratches, grooming, and her favorite treats—apples. Sundance is a 2020 wild burro with a handsome appearance and an outstanding personality. He is the type to meet you at the gate for a greeting and genuinely enjoys spending time with his people. Sundance is a reliable, steady guy who loves being groomed, scratched, and even enjoys hugs. He is exceptionally respectful and aware, understanding when he is welcome in your space and when it is appropriate to give you room while you work with other animals. Sundance has a curious, thoughtful nature and thrives on attention. This special burro makes a wonderful companion animal or addition to a farm for someone looking for a kind, affectionate, and well-mannered donkey with a great mind and heart. Sundance never wants to go anywhere without his Sierra because he likes to protect and watch over his shy little jenny. With his protective nature you can throw a young kid on him and he will welcome the new little thing to protect as he walks around and goes about his day. They both stand well for both the farrier and veterinarian and are handleable for routine care. They are fully up to date on vaccinations, deworming, and have had their teeth floated. $3000/bonded pair

SKYE was rounded up and rescued off the Navajo Nation in New Mexico. She is a 2024 grade grey mare with a kind disposition and a sharp mind. She is willing to learn, very clever, and has shown herself to be a quick study in her groundwork. This rambunctious filly has worn a saddle a few times. Skye is exceptionally sweet and has come out of her shell, meets you at the gate, loves being groomed, and is not afraid to show how much energy her little body contains. She does best with a patient, thoughtful approach. She moves willingly off the lead, backs, pivots, disengages her hips, and stands quietly for both the farrier and veterinarian. Skye lunges at a walk, trot, lope on lead and off lead but has not had a rider in the saddle. Skye is well cared for and fully up to date on teeth floating, vaccinations, and deworming. She is an excellent prospect for someone looking to bring along a young horse correctly and build a strong partnership from the ground up. $2500