WELCOME

Welcome to Amped To Dance's Sixth Annual Spring Recital, entitled "OVERFLOW: Abundance in Motion." In January 2020, we had a vision to foster self-confidence and creativity through dance in a fun, energetic environment. Countless challenges tried to stop us, but our faith never wavered. Through it all, we were given the "GRACE TO GROW" (season five) into the "OVERFLOW" (season six) of "A NEW THING" (season four) as we "AFFIRMED" (season three) that we were "BUILT TO LAST" (season one) for something "GREATER" (season two)!

Looking back, last season taught us the profound lessons of the grace it takes to grow. It was a journey of cultivation and pruning that wasn't always comfortable. Navigating those uncharted territories was undoubtedly challenging, but we held fast to the truth that after the pruning comes the pouring out. Every lesson learned has ultimately propelled us to a place of limitless potential.

And so, we arrive at Season Six, a season dedicated to stepping into our "OVERFLOW." But let's not get it twisted, true overflow isn't just about material things or bank accounts. True overflow is a state of being. It's an abundance of joy that lets you smile when things are heavy, an abundance of peace that washes away anxiety, and an abundance of unconditional love that chooses to forgive and value those around us. That is the real wealth!

This season, we hit some walls. We faced challenges that tried to pull us back, but they only pushed us deeper, proving that our overflow isn't something we are waiting for; it is already inside of us. Like the ocean, nobody knows our true depth. It just keeps giving, it just keeps going, and it never stops moving.

The truth is we weren't blessed just to sit on it; we are called to pour. Today, as our dancers take the stage, they embody this very overflow—a radiant energy, an unstoppable momentum, and a beautiful display of talent that exceeds all boundaries. They represent the incredible abundance that blossoms when dreams are fully realized and when we possess the courage to let our passion pour out without reservation.

We aren't just dancing; we are emptying ourselves so we can be a light for you, letting our creativity and resilience spill over the edge of this stage. We are showing you what it looks like when you live with contentment, yet still hunger for an overflow of greatness.

Welcome to the infinite. Welcome to the shift. Welcome to Overflow: Abundance in Motion. Enjoy the show!

With love,
D M

After years of competitive training at Dance Sensations and Chez Dance Studio—where she rose to the rank of Senior Company member—Mariah continued her artistic exploration at Rowan University through advanced coursework and conventions. With a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and Literacy Studies, Mariah uniquely bridges the gap between pedagogy and performance. She leverages her background as an educator to choreograph school productions and mentor young talent, driven by a mission to uplift and share the transformative power of dance with every student.

From training with the Debbie Allen Dance Academy to performing at The Apollo and BAM's DanceAfrica, Rhapsody Taylor's career is defined by excellence. After graduating Summa Cum Laude from UArts, she transitioned seamlessly between concert dance with Philadanco's D2 and commercial sets in Los Angeles. A versatile artist who has shared the stage with Shaquille O'Neal and choreographed for the Roots Picnic, Rhapsody now leads RHAPSODYNAMIC, a platform dedicated to the African American experience through movement. Currently a member of Contemporary West Dance Theatre, she continues to bridge the gap between technical concert dance and commercial entertainment.

Nevaeh Jackson

Dance Instructor & Competition Coach

Nevaeh discovered her passion for the performing arts early, beginning formal dance training at age six and discovering her calling during a transformative role in Annie at age eight.

Dedicated to honing her craft, she performed extensively throughout the tri-state area. Her notable early experiences include the Showstoppers program at Philadelphia's Kimmel Center and NYC's OnBroadway under the leadership of Reba Webb. Throughout high school, Nevaeh remained deeply immersed in the arts, starring in numerous productions and earning the opportunity to perform for established Broadway professionals.

After continuing her education at Montclair State University, Nevaeh was inspired to forge her own unique path in the entertainment industry. Recently, her talents have expanded from the stage to the screen with roles in several television shows. Through every milestone, Nevaeh remains deeply grateful to God for her artistic gifts.

Currently a member of Empire Dance Company, Jada blends her technical expertise with a passion for teaching and continuous artistic growth.

Alexa Masserini

Dance Instructor

Alexa Masserini is a passionate educator and a proud member of the Amped to Dance family! Now in her sixth year at the studio, Alexa is thrilled to be taking the lead in her very first solo class this season, while also continuing her wonderful work as an assistant dance teacher. Outside the studio, she is currently studying Elementary and Special Education at Rowan College at Burlington County, with the goal of becoming a full-time teacher. Alexa has a huge heart for working with children and finds her greatest joy in watching her students grow, improve their technique, and build beautiful confidence every single day.

Leonette Powell

Dance Instructor

Her dance journey began at age four performing at church, sparking a lifelong love for movement, music, and expression. In middle school, she joined the cheerleading team, developing a strong foundation in discipline and teamwork that later propelled her to high school cheer captain. In this leadership role, she motivated her team while continuing to grow as a performer.

Toward the end of high school, she joined a majorette team, expanding her repertoire to include ballet, hip-hop, Afro dance, majorette, jazz, and modern. Mastery of these diverse styles shaped her into a versatile, confident artist. For her, dance is more than movement—it is a powerful vehicle for connection, expression, and empowerment.

A Message From Mrs. Dana

To my Staff, Dancers, Sponsors, Parents, and Supporters: from the depths of my heart, I say, "thank you." None of this would have been possible without each and every one of you. Your unwavering dedication, tireless effort, and boundless enthusiasm are the very foundation upon which Amped To Dance thrives.

Thank you for choosing Amped To Dance. Thank you for entrusting us with your children's dreams, for believing in our mission, and for standing by our side through thick and thin. Your presence, your encouragement, and your contributions, in whatever form they take, are deeply valued and never taken for granted.

To be completely transparent, my greatest challenge this year was fighting to believe. With all the opposition I faced, I questioned if I was truly called to this work, and I struggled to trust God's promises when my reality looked completely different. This season brought heavy struggles, unforeseen challenges, testing relationships, and real financial losses. Entrepreneurship is a humbling battle filled with daunting lows and exhilarating highs—there were moments of deep doubt where the hurdles felt insurmountable, yet I wouldn't change it for the world. I realize that you all mean more to me than my fears, insecurities, and doubts, so I keep pressing. I choose to stand on the fact that God has never and will never fail me!

I had to remind myself that delayed does not mean denied and the posture we hold while we are waiting is just as important as our posture when we finally receive the blessing. It requires a daily choice to have patience, self-compassion, and above all, grace. Just like a plant needs consistent care through periods of necessary pruning, we needed that grace to weather the storms, knowing that the breaking of the ground was only preparing us for the pouring out of the promise.

Through it all, my unwavering faith, the power of prayer, and most importantly, the incredible love and support from people like you are what propelled me forward, season after season. Knowing you believe in our vision fuels my passion and strengthens my resolve.

We are so excited to continue this dance journey with you this summer and officially step into our seventh season. Get ready for the continued overflow—of joy, of creativity, of growth, and of unforgettable moments on the dance floor!
